

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 76. 1876, ch. 75. 1882, ch. 244

138. Queen Anne's county is divided into seven election districts, according to their present names, bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of said election districts at the places now established by law for that purpose.

1888, ch. 268.

139. The fifth election district of Queen Anne's county is divided into two separate and distinct polling or election precincts, to be divided and designated, as follows: By a line beginning at the head of Blunt's creek, an estuary of Chester river, and running thence in a straight line to the head of Dividing cove of Wye river, between the lands of Mrs. Mary C. Bryan and the lands of William W. Nelson, and thence with Wye river to the extreme end of Bennett's point; that part of said fifth election district lying north and east of said line, and including Wye island, to be and constitute one of said precincts, and to be known as Queenstown, or precinct number one. That part of said district lying south and west of said line, to be and constitute the other of said precincts, and to be known as Winchester, or precinct number two.

Ibid.

140. The polling place of Queenstown precinct, or precinct number one, shall be at Queenstown, and the polling place of Winchester precinct, or precinct number two, shall be at Winchester.

Ibid.

141. The clerk of the circuit court for Queen Anne's county shall forthwith furnish two proper books of registration, one for each of said precincts, such as may be now required by law, to be delivered to the register of said fifth election district; and the said clerk shall also at the same time deliver to said register a poll-list, under the seal of his office, of all registered voters or persons appearing on the registration book of said district; and the said register shall thereupon transcribe from said list, and enter in alphabetical order in said registration book for election precinct number one, the names of all persons or voters on said
