

peace of the county wherein such offence was committed, to be dealt with as provided for in the preceding section.

1888, ch. 151.

174. If any person convicted of offending against any of the provisions of said sections shall think himself aggrieved by such conviction, he may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace before whom such conviction is had, at any time within ten days from the rendition thereof, to the circuit court for the county in which the trial was had. If any resistance be made to the officer directed to execute sections 168-173 of this sub-title of this article, by any persons offending against the same, the said officer shall summon the posse comitatus, and proceed therewith without delay to execute his duty under such warrant. The justice before whom such offenders shall be taken, shall have full power to issue summons for all witnesses that be named to him, to compel their appearance and examine them under oath.

JAILER AND JAIL.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 80.

175. The keeper of the jail of Queen Anne's county shall be appointed by the sheriff of said county, and shall hold his office during good behavior, removable by the sheriff, or by a presentment of the grand jury of said county and conviction of misconduct in the circuit court for said county.

Ibid sec 81.

176. He shall qualify by taking an oath before a justice of the peace for said county, that he will well and faithfully keep all prisoners who shall be committed to the jail of said county, and that he will, in all respects, truly and honestly demean himself in his office of keeper of said jail without prejudice, affection, malice, hatred or partiality, so long as he shall continue in said office; and also by entering into a recognizance before the said justice, with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of four hundred dollars, in the usual form, with the condition therewith, "that if the said A. B. do and shall well and faithfully execute and perform the office of keeper of the jail of Queen Anne's county, and find and provide wholesome and sufficient victuals for all and