

the other half to the treasurer of the county school commissioners, for the use of the public schools of the county; and if any offender, after conviction under said section, shall refuse to pay the fine herein imposed, he shall be committed to the county jail, for each and every such offence, for not less than five nor more than ten days, in the discretion of the justice so committing; provided, however, that such conviction shall be within sixty days after the offence.

1876, ch. 77.

12. It shall be the duty of all constables and bailiffs of the county to arrest all persons whom they may see or have knowledge of violating section 9, and take them before the nearest justice of the peace, to be dealt with as directed in section 11.

Ibid.

1876, ch. 128.

14. It shall not be lawful for any person in St. Mary's county, to shoot, kill or in any manner take, trap, engage, barter or sell any English mocking-birds, old or young, or wilfully destroy the eggs or nests of said birds.

Ibid.

15. The possession by any person in said county of any such bird, or bird's eggs, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of the preceding section.
