How to get a better job (without quitting.)
It may take no longer to find that better job than it does to take the Dale Carnegie Course. Dale Carnegie training may help you get a better position right where you are.
One thing is certain. Dale Carnegie training will help you grow as a person. You will be able to express yourself better. Your ability to win the confidence of others will improve. So will your ability to think things through, come to decisions, present them, and get them carried out.
These abilities give a person the confidence and capacity to do and say the right thing whether he is working with people or with abstract situations. And that is what management wants and needs from the men and women it pays well to handle responsibility.
If you want a better job, find out more about Dale Carnegie training and the many ways it can help you, as it has helped more than one and one-half million other people.

Catonsville Notes

By Liz Williams

Send sympathy cards to the family of Mrs. Emma Dorsey who was given last rites at Gillis Memorial Church. Mrs. Dorsey's son, George (Lula) Jones is a former resident of Catonsville.

She is survived by three other sons, Walter, David and James Jones.

Also cards to the family of Mrs. Hannah Burns who died last week.

Her sons are Earl (Bertine) and Weejay (Minie) Bundara.

Also cards to the Rev. Theodore Jackson Jr. and family. His mother was buried last week. The Rev. Mr. Jackson is the pastor of Gillis Memorial. We were neighbors on Calhoun St., and we remembered Rev. Jackson and his brother when they were children.

* * *

Get well cards to the Ellamont Rd. home of Leon and Mae Williams. Leon is at Lutheran Hospital and Mae is at Johns Hopkins.

Glad you're better hellos to Rae Ross, she is the daughter of Bill and Pinnie Ross of Columbia. She was injured when her car skidded on ice and hit a tree.

Among the college students who were home for the holidays and whom I did not mention before are: Crystal and Myra Coleman (U M-College Park), Edward Coe (Tuskegee Institute); Sharon Anderson Drexel in Pa.), Jackie Radcliffe (U M-College Park), Judie Jones (Coppin); and Carol (Catonsville Community College) and Judy (Villa Julie) Barber. Also, Alesia Eaton (University Maryland-Eastern Shore), David Curry (Frostburg Md.), Michael Brooks (Washington and Lee-Va.) and William (Hank) Bruce (Catonsville C.C.), Robin Kane (Towson State).

Visiting her for the holidays were Tanya Doucoumes and her husband, David. Tanya is the daughter of Rebecca Quille, Baltimore County guidance counselor and Allen Quille Sr., the Baltimore City businessman. David and Tanya are living in Lexington Ky.

Back to classes at Morgan University is Diane Brown. She hails from Richmond. She is the niece of Samuel (Justyne) Boyd.

Congratulations to Elsie Hardwick and Lillian Dorsey who are members of the Iota Lambda Omega Chapter (Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority) Columbia.

Elsie, a computer programmer analyst at the Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Lab, recently participated in a segment of Town Meeting which was filmed as WMAR Channel 2 in Baltimore.

And, she was one of thirty women, representing non-traditional professions, invited to comment on the question, "Womanhood is a Common Bond is a Lot of Bunk ?

Lillian, who is the first female staff chief for planning and research at the Internal Revenue Service, was recently selected as the IRS Woman of the Year of her division. Thirty women vied for the coveted title.

The Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service presented Lillian with a beautifully engraved tray in a most impressive ceremony.

Have you noticed the flags at the Bicentennial Place on Frederick Road? They are raised daily by Boys Scouts from the entire Catonsville area, with one troop at a time being responsible.

The Cowpens flag was presented last July by Commander Thomas Randall, of American Legion Post No. 263. The American Legion is located on Winters Lane.

The Betsy Ross flag was presented by the First District delegates to the General Assembly.

TRY ONE, a Long Johns cigarette says Pamela Carroll to her friend, John Turpin. The local couple was photographed at the gala benefit given during the holidays by the Continentials. Long Johns is a new 120mm American Tobacco Co. brand which is currently being promoted in the Baltimore-Washington area.

More about the Bicentennial Place next week. It is a real community project.

Here is a new years thought I found at the Basilica Of The Assumption Of The Blessed Virgin Mary (Downtown Cathedral). I thought that you might like it as much as I did.

IT IS CALLED, "Special Ingredients For the New Year — Life."

Enough happiness to keep you sweet, enough trials to keep you strong.
Enough sorrows to keep you Human, enough hope to keep you happy.
Enough failures to keep you humble, enough success to keep you eager.
Enough friends to give you comfort, enough wealth to meet your needs.
Enough enthusiasm to look forward, enough faith to banish depression.

Woodlawn Highlights

Have you ever read an invitation over twice before you realized you were to be the honored guest ?

Well that is exactly what I did a few days before the New Year celebrations.

My co-workers chose that way to inform me they were giving a farewell luncheon at Tio Pepe's Restaurant in my honor.

I'll never forget how hard each staff member worked to make it a memorable day for me. They probably don't realize how very happy I felt because of their thoughtful kindness. Some people do the nicest things.

The New Year will find me on a new assignment with the Special Staff.

* * *

A few days before Christmas the link between the Annex and Operations building was the setting for a Christmas luncheon given by workers in the Social Security Group Premium Audit section for 15 boys and girls from Rosewood State Hospital.

The employees decorated the link with Christmas designs made by Mildred Ross, table center pieces and a fireplace.

According to our informant, the invited children squealed with excitment when they viewed the beautifully trimmed Christmas tree and the tables full of Christmas goodies donated by the Social Security employees.

Martha Lewis, Shirley McRae, Floyd Hartley and Thirza Thompson were responsible for collecting most of the gifts that were given to the guests.

Each girl received a sweater, socks and a pair of slacks.

The boys' gifts included sweat socks, dungarees and sweaters. They were also given gifts to take to their friends who were unable to attend.

Employees from both buildings gathered in the link to watch the children dance to the music

The party ended with everyone singing "Jingle Bells" as the children prepared to leave, happy with the promise that they would be invited back next Christmas.

Cook and Save with Campbell's Soups
Save this week with chicken

Chicken is one of the best buys in the supermarket. It's high in protein and relatively low in cost. To make it an even better value, buy whole chickens and split them yourself. Whole chickens are cheaper by the pound than cut-up chicken.
And here's another way to economize with chicken and other meats: by cooking with Campbell's Soup. Campbell's Soup can help stretch meat dishes. So many Campbell's Soups are ideal for cooking. Look for recipes on the labels. And try this delicious chicken and rice dish using Campbell's Tomato Soup. It's enough for a family of six.
Start living the Campbell Life. And save.
CHICKEN CREOLE
1 three-pound chicken, cut up
Salt and pepper
Paprika
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
2 green peppers, chopped
2 onions, chopped
1 can (10½ ounces) Campbell's Tomato Soup
½ soup can water
1 cup diced cooked ham, sausage, or pork
⅛ to ½ teaspoon red pepper flakes
½ teaspoon salt
Cooked rice
1. Wash and dry chicken; season chicken generously with salt, pepper, and paprika.
2. Cover; refrigerate until ready to use.
3. In large heavy pan, slowly brown chicken in bacon drippings (about 20 minutes); remove.
4. Add green pepper and onion; cook until onion is limp.
5. Return chicken to pan; add remaining ingredients except rice.
6. Cover; cook over low heat 35 minutes or until done. Stir occasionally.
7. Skim excess fat from sauce; thicken if desired.
Serve over rice with Cranberry-Orange relish, and hot biscuits.
Makes 6 servings.
Give me the Campbell Life.
