

his successors, upon the order of the county commissioners, any surplus that may remain in his hands; and the said supervisor shall make the said report, under oath, once in twelve months; and it shall contain, in addition to the things hereinbefore provided, a true account of all the moneys received and expended, the name of each and every man who has performed the labor herein required of him, the number of days he has worked, and the time when and the road on which the said labor was performed.

230. Any person liable to labor as aforesaid who shall refuse to obey such summons, and shall refuse to labor on said public roads, as hereinbefore provided, for one or two days, as hereinbefore specified, and shall refuse or neglect, upon demand made as aforesaid, to pay to said supervisor the sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day for one or two days' labor as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect to furnish a substitute as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon complaint made by such supervisor, be liable to be arrested and brought before any justice of the peace in the county, upon a warrant to be issued by said justice in the name of the State therefor, and shall, upon proof of such summons and failure to obey the same and refusal to pay said sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day for not exceeding two days, be fined to an amount equal to said sum of one dollar and fifty cents per day for not exceeding two days, and all costs of such proceeding before said justice, including the pay for the witnesses for the prosecution; and the said justice, in order to enforce the collection of said fines, shall have the power to issue an execution upon the judgment therefor and to make it a part of said judgment, and the party against whom any such judgment is rendered shall stand committed to the county jail until such fine and costs be paid, but said imprisonment shall not exceed ten days for any one offence; provided, that any party against whom any justice of the peace may render a judgment under any of the preceding sections of this sub-title of this article, may, at any time within ten days after the rendition of such judgment, appeal from such judgment to the circuit court for Worcester county; provided, the party so appealing shall give bond with surety to the State of Maryland, to be approved by the said justice of the peace, in the
