State Bar meeting at Hilton

The three day mid-year meeting of the Maryland State Bar Association now going on at the Hilton Hotel is bringing together the state's top legal minds with over 200 lawyers registered by today (Friday).

The meeting began Thursday Jan. 8 and will continue through tomorrow Saturday, Jan. 10.

Workshops, displays of law books, office supplies and other equipment along with section meetings, educational programs and seminars are featured.

The Thursday program opened with section meetings on real property and zoning, Juvenile law presented a program on "Paternity Testing in 1976: Exoneration and Innocent Male?."

The events of the day ended with a cocktail party and President's reception in the ballroom of the hotel.

Today's events began with a Joint Breakfast and at mid-day the Honorable Edward S. Northron spoke on "Current Problems of the Federal Courts."

Another cocktail party is scheduled this evening to be followed by a formal dinner dance featuring Gene Donati and his orchestra.

Events scheduled for Saturday will feature past-presidents of the Association at breakfast; the report of the Section of Legal Education and Admission to the Bar.

Last rites held for Mrs. Giles

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Arietta Morris Giles, 67, Jan 3 at Waters AME Church Mrs. Giles, 2500 block Forest Park Ave., died Dec. 31 at Provident Hospital and is buried in Arbutus Cemetery.

Born in Baltimore, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Morris. Mrs. Giles was an active member of Waters AME Church.

Mrs. Giles was also known as "Rita." Relatives state, "She (Mrs. Giles) was a quiet, gentle, considerate and understanding neighbor. Her life was centered around her children and grandchildren."

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Virginia Harris, Mrs. Elizabeth Osborne, Mrs. Gwendolyn Rooks, Mrs. Clara Carter; one son, Elmer Giles Jr.; a brother, Milburn Morris and six grandchildren.

Rev. Vaughn, 37, is president of Baptist Ministers Conference

The Baptist Ministers Conference of Baltimore and Vicinity had installation services on Monday for their president, the Rev. Dr. Alfred C. D. Vaughn.

Services were held at Grace Memorial Baptist Church, where the Rev. Dr.Vaughn has served as pastor for eight years.

The Rev. Dr. Vaughn stated, "I have tried to let our community know that the Baptist Ministers Conference of Blaltimore of Conference of Baltimore is not for sale and we are free.

"We can speak out when we see the need and I have algo tried to let them know that we don't need other people who will not speak but tell us when and how to speak out."

Among recommendations the Rev. Dr. Vaughn made to the Baptist ministers were: "I recommended that this conference be careful not to endorse political candidates who are not concerned about the total man and the total community.

"We use our power to make sure Cong. Parren J. Mitchell goes back to Washington on our behalf this year.

The Rev. Dr. Vaughn added, "I have no recommendations for the President of the United States, it seems to me this will have to up to you and your God." The Rev. Dr. Vaughn is serving his second term as president.

The 37-year-old minister said, " As we face this Bicentennial year, we find that as prophets of God living in a wicked city like Baltimore and a corrupt state like Maryland and sinful nation like America, we are faced with meeting the challenge that living in 1976 brings to us.

"For you see as the writer said, we are living in the best of times but also the worst of times. People are depending upon us to give them some real direction as they try to face life in 1976."

Other officers of the Baptist Ministers's Conference are the Reverends William Rivers, first vice president; Vernon Dobson second vice president; W. A. Hull secretary; Dr. E. Jerry Williams, assistant secretary; Dr. John Robinson, financial secretary.

Also the Reverends Willie S. Chambers, assistant financial secretary; E. W. Williams, treasurer; Marold Dobson, S.S. Lesson Expository; William Johnson, assistant S.S. Lesson Expository.

The Reverend J. Woodard Keilly, news commentator D. S. Thompon assistant news commentator; Dr. B. L. Julian Price, sergeant at arms.
