

council, with two sureties, who shall be taxpayers of said town, conditioned to discharge his duties as tax collector faithfully, and pay over all moneys which may come into his hands by virtue of his said office. Said bond to be approved by the said mayor and council.

1688, ch. 295.

53. The mayor of the said corporation shall, in virtue of his office, have and exercise within the limits of said town all the jurisdiction and power of a justice of the peace, except as to the recovery of small debts; he may call on any officer of the town intrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public moneys for a statement of his accounts as often as he shall see proper; he shall see that the ordinances are faithfully executed, and report to the council at their stated meetings the general state of the town, and may call special meetings of the council whenever he may see proper.

Ibid.

54. The said mayor and council shall have power to establish the limits and width of the streets of said town, and to improve the same, and to remove obstructions therefrom, and may open new streets, lanes and alleys, and provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred thereby.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 7, sec. 19.

55. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be annually incurred by the attendance of jurymen at the circuit court.

Ibid. sec. 20.

56. They shall pay to the jurymen and talesmen of said county, immediately after the termination of each court, such sum of money as they shall severally appear to be entitled to, by the certificate of the clerk of the circuit court, for their attendance.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1882, ch. 270. 1884, ch. 201.

57. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Carroll county: For election district