

ARTICLE VI.

APPRENTICES.

24. Enticing apprentice; penalty and damages for. Bona fide sheltering of minor from ill-treatment.

1890, ch. 8.

24. Any person who shall entice any apprentice or other minor from the care, direction, service or employment of the parent, guardian or master of such apprentice or other minor, or who shall knowingly harbor any apprentice or other minor so enticed, shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace by action of debt, in the name of the State, in the same manner as small debts; and the parent, guardian or other master of such apprentice or other minor shall also be entitled to recover damages in an action on the case against the person so offending; but no person who in good faith receives, harbors, persuades away, or otherwise removes from a parent, guardian or master, any minor for the purpose of sheltering such minor from ill-treatment or suffering, shall be held to incur any liability therefor.
