

place mentioned in said notice, sell such game or fish at public auction to the highest bidders for cash, and at once pay the proceeds of such sale to the justice; said constable shall give the purchaser a certificate of purchase, in which shall be a particular description of the game or fish sold, together with the date of sale.

1896, ch. 293.

29. If there has been no appeal, or if the judgment of the justice is affirmed on appeal, the said justice shall deduct his costs, if not already paid, together with the constable's costs, which shall include a fee of ten per centum of the amount of the proceeds of the sale for his services as auctioneer, and shall distribute the balance of such proceeds of sale or the ascertained value of the game or fish seized as secured by the bond, as follows: One-half shall be paid to the game warden, which shall be kept by him for his services, and one-half shall be paid into the county or city treasury for the benefit of the school fund.

Ibid.

30. The game warden and the deputy game wardens shall not be liable for any damage or costs sustained by any person or corporation by reason of the wrongful seizure of game or fish under this sub-title; provided, however, that the enforcement of this sub-title shall in nowise prevent prosecution of persons or corporations for violations of the game or fish laws of this State.
