Catonsville Notes

... by Liz Williams

By Liz Williams

The Catonsville community expresses sincere regrets to the businessmen whose stores were either destroyed or damaged by fire, smoke and water when a three-alarm blaze struck the Village on New Year's Day.

This has not only been a personal loss to the owners of the stores but also a loss to the entire Catonsville community. Here is hoping and praying that these owners will be able to get a new start.

"One of the buildings that was not damaged in the fire was the Bicentennial Place which was opened with a ribbon cutting ceremony last July. It was attended by many individuals, including the Baltimore County executive, Ted Venetoulis.

The John S. Wilson Co. at 741 Frederick Rd. paid for the basic construction of the building on the front portion of the lumber firm's parking lot.

The building, only 5 x 16 feet, is very attractive because of its crisp red, white and blue color-scheme; its red, white and blue kiosk nearby which displays posters, pictures and programs pertaining to the Bicentennial in Catonsville; its red geraniums growing in blue flower boxes; and its four flags on poles along the sidewalk.

The work on the building, the boxes, the kiosk and the poles was accomplished by volunteers of the community, as were the lettered signs, the interior finishing and the furnishings. Some 60 individuals or firms were recognized as contributors for the completion of Bicentennial Place.

Any funds raised in the shop at Bicentennial Place will be used for projects to improve the community, according to suggestions of the area's residents. Residents who have ideas about how potential funds might be spent after the end of 1976 should contact representatives of the committee.

Many programs are being planned through July 1976. Printed program lists are available, and include programs being arranged by Catonsville Community College. The coordinator of the Catonsville committee is Jean Walsh, former editor of the Catonsville Times.

Officers are: Thomas Campion, chairman; Mary Kay Bostwick, secretary; and A. A. Stewart, treasurer. Some of the programs are money raising events, but most of them are free of charge.

In an effort to bring news to the Catonsville community, the Catonsville Times will join Journalism I students at Catonville Senior High School on Jan. 15 to present the first of a bi-monthly feature of school news.

The twice-monthly page of news about Catonsville High will be the work of budding young journalists under the leadership of Mrs. Sallie Gracie.

Among those in the class in our immediate community are Janet Anderson and Keenam Coningland. Keenam is the news editor.

Congratulations to the journalism class at Catonsville and may you be quite successful with your community news. Congratulations also to the Catonsville Times for allowing these young people to get practical experience while they are still studying.

Sympathy cards to the family of Mrs. Mary Harris who died recently. Mrs. Harris was the oldest member of Grace AME Church.

Home for the holidays from the Air Force is Howard Mullen, one of our local youths. He leaves for England this week for a two-year stint.

Send "Get Well" cards to Mrs. Emma Poag, mother in law of Cleaver Poag. Mrs. Poag is in Room 301A Sinai Hospital. Cleaver as all of you know is the chairman of the Education Committee at Grace AME Church and teaches Drivers Education at Woodlawn Senior High School.

She was formerly a Physical Education teacher and her husband John II are the parents of twins, Naltonna and TaWanna. Naltonna is married to the "black con" on TV's hit show SWAT, Rod Perry. Rod plays the part of Hondo Harrelson's right hand man, Deke.

They are living in Los Angeles, Calif., as is Tawanna who will probably seek a career in law. Even though this family has lived In Halthorpe it has always been a part of the family at Grace, where the Rev. Reginald Boston is the pastor.

Very soon, I hope to have a surprise article from Road which I hope to have in this column. I hope to hear from Rod, himself, very shortly, and I am sure that he will have a message that he would like to share with the youth in the Catonsville — Baltimore area.

Continue to send "Get Well" cards to Mrs. Louise (Matthew) Lynch the new site-manager for the Lunch Plus program which meets at Grace Church on Wednesdays. Mrs. Lynch took Mrs. Hattie Smith's place when Mrs. Smith resigned after having served the group so faithfully since the program started.

To show their appreciation to Mrs. Smith for the fine service she had rendered, the Lunch Plus group honored her with a dinner and presented her with a gift.

Even though Mrs. Margaret (Melvin) Johnson has moved to the Wyman

YWCA teens meet for talks on drugs, racism, birth control

The Md., version of the National Teen Organization held a mini-Action assembly at the Franklin St., branch of the YWCA.

The Assembly was a part of the continuing effort on the part of the YWCA to keep abreast of current affairs. The special concern of the group is the involvement of youth in social and political problems.

On last Friday Jan. 9 some 65 to 70 teen-aged girls from the Md. area began arriving at the Y. The program continued

LOCAL CLUB NOTES

Zetas meet for Founders' day

Alpha Zeta Chapter, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority will observe Founders' Day on Sunday, Jan. 18, at 5 p.m. in the McKeldin Student Center Ballroom of Morgan State University.

The theme for the observance is "Can Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Continue to Meet the Challenge of the Impossible Dream?"

The implication of the theme is that the five founders, all of whom are still living, dreamed that from Zeta's small beginning on the campus of Howard University many chapters would spread across the nation. The sorority has as its objectives the fostering of the ideals of sisterhood, scholarship, service and finer womanhood.

The Zeta sorority was the first Greek letter organization organized on Morgan's campus in 1908. It is especially significant that this 55th birthday observance is being held at Morgan in the third phase of its illustrious history.

The history of the sorority will be presented in narration and songs by the Morgan State University Choir covering four phases. The first phase will depict the origin of the sorority; phase two will show where Zeta is now; phase three will tell where Zeta should be going. Phase four will feature the ideals of finer womanhood through the chapter song "A Woman Noble In Her Aspirations" and the National Sorority Song.

The chapter will also honor sisters who have been active members for 40 years or more.

Reservations may be secured by calling 542-5232. Ms. Mary E. Fields is basileus of Alpha Zeta Chapter and Dr. Elizabeth Frances Johnson is facilitator for the Founders' Day activities.

Chesapeake Club

The Chesapeake Club, Inc. held its annual election for 1976 board members. Thomas Coleman was elected for a three-term, are: John Wesley Marshall, Kermit Harrzell, Elmer Travis and Herman Jones.

The financial secretary, Melvin G. Roy, retired after 25 years service. George Tibbs was appointed for one year to take over the unexpired term.

Installation of the new board of directors was girls from the Md. area began arriving at the Y. The program continued

Sigmas cite local figures at meeting marking Founders' Day

The Epsilon Nu Sigma Chapter of the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity honored three prominent Baltimoreans for their contribution to the metropolitan community.

The affair held, Jan. 11 downtown Holiday Inn, marked the 62nd Founders' Day Celebration of the fraternity. The theme of the affair was "Sigma Men Reflect on the Past to Build a Tomorrow."

Norman V. A. Reeves received the award for education from the fraternity for his outstanding and innovative contributions to the teaching profession.

Mr. Reeves, principal of Ralph W. Young Elementary School, emphasized a need for black unity and cooperation in his acceptance speech.

In accepting the award for Social Action, Mrs. Enolia P. McMillan, chairperson of the Board of Trustees of Morgan State University and president of the Baltimore chapter of the NAACP, called attention to the role of the NAACP today.

She asked that all black people support the organization both financially and physically. "Your support is needed to help the NAACP, which will in turn help all black people," she commented.

The recipient of the award for Bigger and Better Business was Frederick A. Bailey, assistant vice-president, Maryland National Bank.

Joseph Woodfolk, president of tthe Epsilon Nu Sigma chapter, addressed the Sigma men to rededicate themselves toward the goals of progress, self-identity, and cooperation.

The program was consummated when the Sigma men renewed their pledge to the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity.

U.S.D.A. food clips

Sweet potatoes should not be stored in the refrigerator, according to U.S. Dept. of Agriculture home economists. Decay is a problem with sweet potatoes — avoid ones with worm holes, grub injury, or any other defects. Even if you cut away the discolored area the remainder of the potato may have a bad taste.

Rhubarb is not a fruit, but a vegetable — a highly specialized one. It's used like a fruit in sweetened sauces and pies. It's usually in limited supply.

pany proved to be quite an event in the East finishing this past Christmas Eve.

The section choir under Joe's direction sounded very professional as they sang many of the familiar Christmas carols played by Wilma Marshall on an electric piano.

Sandy Paul, clerk in the Bureau of Health Insurance entertained the group of party participants with several musical selections on her guitar.

Other participants in the program were: Ken Olga, several musical selections on her guitar.

Jerry Williams, soloist for the morning show wrote the "Colonial Christmas Capers," a skit starring Brenda Bailey, Cecelia Bruce, Marguerite Fatherly and Ronald Clark.

The fashion show featuring what the "now women should be wearing was narrated by Doris Ridgely and coordinated by Hilda Bouldin.

Other participants in the program were: Ken Olga, Eva Knight, Lenora Collins, Thomas Richardson, Madie Stewart, Evelyn Thames, Margaret Jefferson;

Vinton Moore, Leonard Davis, Al Lowman, Diane White, akathy Budzik, Jackie Johnson, Gloria King;

Floyd McDaniels, Lavonia (Vonnie) Covington, Pam Williams, Rosa Clanton, Rosalie Keiper, Karen Kraft.

On the sick list is Ms. Lavonia (Vonnie) Covington, corresponding clerk in the Division of Direct Reimbursement. Ms. Covington was a member of that section's Christmas choir.

Mrs. Diane White, Edith Clerk and also a Christmas choir member is confined in the Brady Clinic at Hopkins Hospital.

The Making Of Friends

Send "Sympathy cards Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made
And the things which in common we share.
We want to live on, not just
for ourselves;
But because of the people
who care.
It's giving and doing for
On that all life's splendor depends
And this joy of this world,
when you've summed it
all up.
Is found in the making of
