Citizens from all walks attend last rites for Frank Harris

Edmondson grad dies Jan. 5, a day after his 20th birthday

Scores of friends, relatives, community and church leaders and students packed to standing room only the main auditorium of the First United Church of Jesus Christ on Jan. 8 to pay final respects to Frank Harris.

Young Harris, a June, 1975 graduate of Edmondson High School, died Jan. 5 at University Hospital after a courageous battle with cancer. He had just reached his 20th birthday Jan. 4. He is buried in Western Star Cemetery.

He had just received, in December, the AFRO's highest award, a place on the 1974 Honor Roll for the inspiration his courage gave to his family and Edmondson students and friends. The engraved plaque will be given to his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Harris.

As the organ music played softly, countless mourners filed by the silver casket surrounded by mini-mums and lily arrangements from Dunbar High School; lillies from the majorettes of Edmondson and the First United Youth Chorus.

Carnations graced the top of the casket and a bleeding heart arrangement of red carnations and white mini-mums from the faculty and students of Edmondson.

For burial, Young Harris was dressed in the white suit and tie and black shirt he wore when he was graduated June 2, 1975.

The First United Youth Chorus opened the services with "Take My Hand Precious Lord" and Mrs. Mary Brown of Leadenhall Baptist Church, sang "May the Work I've Done Speak For Me." The Gospel Chorus of Edmondson High also sang.

Bishop Monroe R. Saunders Sr., pastor of the First United Church delivered the eulogy. The Rev. Monroe R. Saunders Jr. read the obituary. Remarks of consolation were made by Del. Troy Brailey, a close friend of the family.

In the eulogy, Bishop Saunders challenged the young people in the congregation to look for the truth "beneath the ordinary surface of things" and "strive to build a certain kind of self and character."

Del. Brailey commented on young Harris' strength and courage during his illness and praised the Edmondson students' strong unity and spirit.

Born Jan. 4, 1956, young Harris was the son of Mrs. Elizabeth Harris and the late Russell Harris Sr.

He was an outstanding basketball player and coach of the girl's basketball team.

When he was graduated June, 2, he was cheered by more than 1,000 persons attending the commencement. Accompanying him was his mother and Del. Brailey, who pushed the wheelchair down the aisle.

Young Harris was earlier a member of Ames United Methodist Church. He often attended Leadenhall Baptist Church with Del. Brailey. He later joined First United under the leadership of Bishop Saunders.

Noteworthy was his reference for God and his belief that he could be healed through faith.

During periods when he appeared to be healing, he was returned from the hospital and was able to keep house and visit his mother, who, herself, had become hospitalized.

Edmondson students held a memorial service Jan. 6 during halftime of the Dunbar-Edmondson basketball game. According to Luther McClean, president of the Edmondson student government, future activities will include a donation to the Cancer fund and plans for an annual athletic trophy and a school showcase dedicated to his memory.

In addition to his mother surviving are his sister, Miss Bernadette Harris, also a June, 1975 Edmondson graduate; a brother Russell Harris Jr.; five aunts; four uncles, and devoted friend, Del. Brailey.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Morton and Dyett Funeral Home for William B. Saunders of 922 Stoddard Court. He is buried at King Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Saunders died Jan. 6 at Mercy Hospital of sickle cell anemia. He was 50.

Mr. Saunders was born July 26, 1925 in Raleigh, N.C., the son of the late Mr. I. Amos and Mrs. Ella Byrd Saunders.

He attended public school in Raleigh and worked for many years for Bond and Loan Company here in Baltimore. Mr. Saunders was also a member of Trinity Baptist Church.

IN MEMORIAM

JONES — In loving memory of our dear nephew, ROBERT P. JONES, who passed away January 17, 1968:
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of the ones who think of you.

Aunts-MARY JONES, SARAH JONES, ANNA FRAZIER, CATHERINE SMITH

LESTER — In loving memory of my dear mother, HENRIETTA P. LESTER, who passed away January 17, 1958:
Oh, mother, dear when you were here
I had your tender care;
And none can ever take your place
Or fill that vacant chair,
You were the sunlight of our home
Till God took you away;
But I never will forget you,
And I'll meet in Heaven, I pray.

Loving Daughter-FANNIE EWELL

PEAY SR. — In loving memory of my husband, our father and grandfather, COLEMAN PEAY SR. who passed away January 13, 1963:
Do not ask if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us thirteen years ago.

LOVING WIFE-CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, HENRY J. ROBINSON, who passed away January 18, 1970:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how I miss you, HENRY, dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no it isn't true
For six long years have passed, dear
And my heart still aches for you

Loving Wife-ADA ROBINSON and SON

IN MEMORIAM

VENEY — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, FRANK VENEY, who passed away January 14, 1968:
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Loving Wife—ADA C. VENEY
Daughters—CHARLENE and MARY

Teach us to take our days one at a time, knowing that each day brings us so much to do and to enjoy that we can use all of it.
