

day and to be properly fed and watered with abundance of pure, clean water.

Rule 7. Any inclosure in which cows are kept shall be graded and drained so as to keep the surface reasonably dry; no garbage, fecal matter or similar matter shall be placed or allowed to remain in such inclosure unless sufficient straw or similar good absorbent materials be used to keep the inclosure clean at all times and no open drains shall be allowed to run through it.

And any person who shall ship or sell milk contrary to the aforesaid order of said board shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than twenty dollars for each day during which shipments shall be made after notice of such order.

1898, ch. 306, sec. 21.

22. The live stock sanitary board shall, at the request of the owner or owners of dairy herds, furnish them with a certificate of health whenever the provisions of this sub-title are complied with and there is no visible sign of disease amongst such herds; such certificates shall be revocable in the discretion of the board.

Ibid. sec. 22.

23. For the purpose of paying the expenses required in carrying out the provisions of this sub-title, the sum of three thousand dollars is hereby appropriated annually, or so much thereof as is necessary, out of the moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, and the comptroller is authorized and directed to draw his warrant on the treasury for such sum as the said board shall produce vouchers for, not exceeding the amount appropriated, payable monthly.
