Mystery surrounds Eastside murder

A 25-year-old East Baltimore man was gunned down under mysterious circumstances and was left in the pouring rain shortly before 4 p.m. at the intersection of Lanvale and Bond Sts. last Tuesday.

Homicide police reports show James Eugene Holland, 1600 block E. Lanvale St., died from his wounds at 9 p.m. at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, about five hours after the fatal shooting. He suffered gunshot wounds of the skull and buttocks.

A relative told the AFRO Mr. Holland had left his parents' house to go to the store seconds when neighbors heard gunfire and saw the victim collapsed to the side walk.

A neighbor who discovered the body upon hearing two gunshots was quoted by police as saying he heard no arguments nor saw anybody running away from the scene.

Mr. Holland's money and personal possessions were apparently intact causing police to rule out a robbery attempt while refusing to speculate on the motive for the murder.

Police have no description of the gunman but state the bullets were fired from a small caliber revolver, possibly from a .22.

Detectives responding to a call report they found the body in front of 1641 N. Bond St. and, a man was trying to prevent the body fro m getting wet by placing newspapers on the body.

The man reportedly told police he came to his door and found the body. Several area residents questioned by police stated they heard nor saw anything.

Holland who was unemployed was born in Baltimore and attended the city public schools. He enjoyed drawing and poem writing.

His funeral is at 5 p.m. Sunday at the March Funeral Home. Burial is in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery at 10 a.m. Monday.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James (Mary) Holland, and one sister, Miss Bonnie Holland, a Social Security Woodlawn employee.

The Women's Bureau, which is part of the U.S. Department of Labor's Employment Standards Administration, provides informational, promotional, technical and advisory services for women workers.

WHOSE HAT? — A cap was left at the scene of the Tuesday murder at Lanvale and Bond Sts. Police investigators look at the other clues on the ground as the rain poured down and high winds blew paper about the intersection.

House OKs ban on aid to Angola

WASHINGTON — Despite a last-minute appeal from President Ford the House gave final approval Tuesday to a congressional ban on all covert U.S. military aid to Angola.

The action came on a $12.3 billion defense appropriation bill, which the Senate passed last month after adding language to ban covert assistance to the former Portuguese colony.

The bill was sent to President Ford, who only hours earlier had dispatched a letter to House Speaker Carl Albert warning that anti-Soviet forces in Angola "will be destroyed" unless they get Western aid.

Ford blamed Congress for undermining the U.S. effort to give weapons aid to two factions opposing the Soviet-backed Popular Movement for the Liberation of Angola.

Ford said that between March and December of last year the Soviets and Havana poured $200 million in arms aid and have sent 10,000 Cuban troops into Angola.

The President said the United States then dispatched "modest amounts of assistance" to the anti-communist forces.

"The U.S. assistance, small as it was, began to reverse the tide and block the Soviet backed effort to take over the country by force," Ford said. Then, he said, in September and October the Kremlin and Cuba "massively escalated the conflict."

The President said his efforts to counter this — through a request for $28 million in arms aid plus a diplomatic offensive — have failed due to Congress.

"Unfortunately, this effort was substantially undermined by the vote of the Senate in December, 1975, to cut off U.S. assistance to Angola," he said.

Academy of Sciences to honor scientists

The Maryland Academy of Sciences will present its 17th annual Outstanding Young Scientist Award on Feb. 4.

Co-sposored by the academy's Board of Trustees and the Scientific Howard H. Seliger, professional scientists who serve as consultants to the academy), the awards dinner will be held at the Maryland Science Center for the first time.

Six judges, led by Dr. Howard H. Seliger, professor of biology at the Johns Hopkins University, have considered over 20 nominees and will announce their choice and five coequal runners-up distinguished Young Scientists at the dinner.

The award is presented annually to the Outstanding Young Scientist, male or female, living in Maryland and/or engaged in work in Maryland in any field of science, mathematics or engineering.

The award consists of the Allan C. Davis Medal of the academy (named for the academy's chairman emeritus) and a check for $500.

Last year's winner was Dr. Douglas Dale Davis, a University of Maryland chemistry associate professor.

Teen pleads guilty to assaulting woman

A 15-year-old boy pleaded guilty in Criminal Court Jan. 27 to breaking into the home of an 83-year-old woman Aug. 14, 1975.

Criminal Court Judge Solomon Liss sentenced Brian Simms of the 3300 block Ravenwood Ave. to 20 years in prison.

Assistant State's Attorney Alexander Palenscar Jr., told the court Simms admitted breaking a window in the victim's home and attacking her while she was in bed.

Neighbors told the police the teenager asked them for help because he had cut his hands.

Court records state Simms plam prints were found on papers in the victim's home and he was arrested the following day.

Ethnicity confab ends today, Friday

The Consultation on Ethnicity and Social Welfare ended its two day conference at the Holiday Inn-Downtown today, Friday, with a luncheon address by Dr. Andrew Billingsley, president of Morgan State University.

Dr. Billingsley highlighted the affair by speaking on "A National Family Policy: Implications for Blacks and Other Ethnic Groups."

The conference, sponsored by the School of Social Work of the University of Maryland at Baltimore and the Institute on Pluralism and Group Identity, held workshops on social service, health care and mental health. The conference was dedicated to Mrs. Judith Magidson, Herman a graduate of the Maryland School of Social Work, who died last spring.

Also present at the conference, participating in the Mental Health workshop, was Dr. John E. McAddo, associate professor at the school of social work and community planning of the University of Maryland at Baltimore. His subject was "Ethnicity and Development in Young Children."

Welfare Rights to open new center Feb. 4

IN MEMORIAM

GRANT — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Bishop and Pastor of Apostolic Faith Church of God No. 1, Bishop Rossie C. Grant, who departed this life January 17, 1965:
He would not want the ones he loved,
To grieve for him today;
We must not say that he is dead,
For he is just away.
Away upon a journey to a land that's bright and fair;
And tho' we all do miss him here,
We know he is happy there.
And memories of him will bring comfort everyday,
For as we recall, he is not dead,
He is just away.
Loving Wife,
DOROTHY GRANT
and FAMILY.

HAILE — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William, who passed away January 30, 1974:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are past;
His ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Lovingly,
WIFE and DAUGHTER.

HILL — In loving memory of our loved one ROBERT S. HILL, who passed away January 29, 1955:
This world may change from year to year
And friends from day to day
But never will the one we loved
From memory pass away.
Loving SISTERS,
BROTHERS-IN-LAW,
NIECES, NEPHEWS.

PRUITT — In loving memory of our dear sister and aunt, Mildred E. Pruitt, who passed away January 3, 1975:
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
Sisters:
FRANCES—ETHEL;
Niece, JOAN—
Brother-In-Law,
CECIL—
Nephew-In-Law,
DON.

WHITE — In precious memory of my beloved parents: BOYD H. WHITE, who went to live with God on January 26, 1940, and my mother, RUTH, who joined him on February 1, 1972:
It broke my heart to lose them,
But they didn't go alone;
For part of me went with them
The day God called them home.
Sadly Missed,
Daughter—
VELMA.

CARD OF THANKS

MARY BRANDON
Extending our gratitude for the expressions of sympathy by the many cards and flowers during our bereavement.
THE BRANDON FAMILY.

WALKER — The family of the late Cora Walker would like to thank each and everyone for their many acts of kindness during her extended illness and death. We thank you for your visits, cards, donations and floral arrangements. A special thank you to Reverend Walter E. Paige, pastor of Faith Baptist Church and the Elickson Funeral Home, Mrs. Cecelia McLeod, church organist.
MRS. ROSE ASH
and THE WALKER FAMILY.

WILLIAMS — The Family of the late Mr. James E. Williams, wishes to thank the friends and neighbors for kind expressions of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings. Special thanks to Rev. Paige, and member of Faith Baptist Church. Also the Staff and employees of Fort Howard's Loch Raven Veterans Hospital for their faithful care for him while being a wheel chair patient 19 years,
THE WILLIAMS FAMILY—
BETTY RUTH,
EVELYN, LOUISE,
CHARLES,
& HIS CHILDREN.

BIRTHDAY TRIB.

CREW — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our loved one, Ralph Crew, on his birthday, January 30, who passed away October 15, 1971:
Treasures of our son and brother dear,
Often brings a silent tear.
Thoughts return to scenes long passed,
Times speed on by memories last.
Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be
But in his wisdom God has planned
Beyond our power to see.
Loving FATHER,
MOTHER, SISTERS,
GRANDMOTHER, & GRANDFATHER.

DeSHIELDS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our wife, mother and loved one, Willie Mae DeShields, on her birthday, February 1, who passed away September 13, 1975:
If we could have our fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world
We would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
We'll whisper soft and low;
"Please, God, let us have our loved one back, because we miss her so."
Husband—
FRANKLIN DeSHIELDS
Daughters—
JOANNE and PATRICIA
and FAMILY.

MOSS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our loved one, Taquela Lavonne, on her birthday, January 26, who passed away August 9, 1970:
Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of thee;
Oh! how we miss you darling,
None but God in heaven can see.
When the evening shades are falling
And we are sitting all alone,
In our hearts there comes a longing
If you could only come home
THE FAMILY.

BIRTHDAY TRIB.

HINTON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear son, brother and father, Philip N. Hinton, on his birthday, January 30, who passed away July 28, 1972:
Tho' we can't be together,
For this birthday, Philip dear,
The way our thoughts are with you,
It seems you're just as near.
For though we may be far apart,
You're always close within our hearts.
LOUIS HINTON SR.,
and FAMILY.
