

setting up such other boundary, shall forfeit and pay for each offense the sum of one hundred dollars.

1900, ch. 66, sec. 21 A

24. Any person or persons who shall enter upon or cross over the land, premises or private property of any person or persons in this State after having been duly notified by the owner or his agent not to do so shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before some justice of the peace in the county or city where such trespass may have been committed be fined by said justice of the peace not less than one, nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed to the jail or county or city until such fine and costs are paid; provided, however, that the person or persons so convicted shall have the right to appeal from the judgment of said justice of the peace to the circuit court for the county or criminal court of Baltimore where such trespass was committed, at any time within ten days after such judgment was rendered; and, provided, further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to include within its provisions the entry upon or crossing over any land when such entry or crossing is done under a bona fide claim of right or ownership of said land, it being the intention of this section only to prohibit any wanton trespass upon the private land of others.

1888, art. 27, sec. 22. 1860, art. 30, sec. 16. 1722, ch. 8, secs. 3, 4.

25. The penalties incurred under sections 22 and 23 shall be recovered by indictment, which shall contain as particular a description of the place, and to whose lands the boundaries relate which have been set up or destroyed, as possible, and one-half of such penalty shall go to the informer.

Bribery.

Ibid. sec. 23. 1860, art. 30, sec. 17. 1809, ch. 138, sec. 8. 1868, ch. 369. 1882, ch. 142.

26. If any person shall bribe or attempt to bribe any executive officer of the State of Maryland, any judge, justice of the peace or other judicial officer of this State, any member or officer of the general assembly of Maryland, or any member or officer of any municipal corporation of this State, or any executive officer of such corporation, in order to influence any such officer or person in the performance of any of his official duties; and if the governor or other executive officer of this State, any judge, justice of the peace or other judicial officer
