

67 B. When provisions shall become effective.

General Measurers and Inspectors.

68. Appointment of general measurers and inspectors; bonds; powers; bond of special inspectors.
69. Appointment of special inspectors by commander of State fishery force; salaries; oath; duties; removal certificates; taxes; statements.
70. Commander shall divide inspection points in Baltimore into four inspection districts and organize board of inspectors; reports to commander.
71. Duties of general measurers and inspectors.
72. Only general measurer and inspector and duly licensed measurers shall act as such in Baltimore city; license fee; bond; suspension of license; measurers; proviso.
73. Salaries of general measurers and inspectors; penalty for violation of provisions of sections 68 to 73; when appointments shall be made; inspectors shall report monthly to commander of State fishery force.

Packing Oysters.

77. Packer's license; cost of said license; moneys received for said licenses to be accounted for to comptroller.
78. Penalty for packing or canning oysters without license; saving as to past offenses.

Planting Oysters.

83. Right given to residents of Maryland to plant oysters;

corporations or joint stock companies may not lease beds or plant oysters.

Shell Fish Commissioners.

84. Appointment of shell fish commissioners; qualifications; term; salaries; bond; chief clerk and assistants; their salaries; surveyor; his salary; annual appropriation for investigating oyster propagation; office to be in Annapolis.
85. Record books to be kept at office of leases, assignments and conveyances of land for cultivating oysters.
86. Survey of beds, bars and rocks to be made, and maps made.
87. United States coast and geodetic survey to be asked to assist in carrying out section 86.
88. Residents of counties may be appointed to aid shell fish board in its survey duties; compensation.
89. Regulations for the work of survey; report.
90. Liberal judgment to be used in defining natural beds and bars.
91. Residents of counties have right to be heard in reference to omission of oyster beds, etc., from survey.
92. Finding of judge to be final.
93. Amended survey to be filed with clerk of circuit court.
94. Deposit of twenty-five dollars to be made by petitioner.
95. County surveyor to assist board whenever called; compensation.