CONSUMER CORNER

Jet Set Bargain Hunters

Even if you're not world traveling this winter, these food prices may interest you. For eggs, you can beat Pantry Pride prices in Argentina at 40¢ (avoid Sweden at 114¢). For Milk, you do best in Brazil at 22¢ a quart (avoid Canada at 53¢). For white bread, you can beat our price in London at 19¢ but watch out for grain in Paris at 89¢. Boneless Sirloin is best in America, with prices going up and up as you go north and east to a high of $18 in Japan. Bacon isn't cheap anywhere these days, with a world low of $1* a lb. All in all, our basic margarine may be world wide lower most of the time. And during our Founder's Month celebration, the bargains should be better than ever. So pay more attention and fewer dollars and cents off can really add up.
