Mrs. Dorothy Lopez, 65, ran state police cafeteria

A mass of Resurrection was said Tuesday at St. Edward's Catholic for Mrs. Dorothy R. Lopez of 3304 Cedardale Rd. She is buried in Maryland National Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Lopez suffered a heart attack at her home Feb. 5 and was pronounced dead on arrival at Provident Hospital. She 65.

Mrs. Lopez was born Aug. 30, 1910 in New Orleans La., the daughter of William La' Cabe and Mrs. Beatrice La'Cabe. She attended public schools in New Orleans.

A member of St. Edward's Catholic Church, Mrs. Lopez was an active church leader. She also worked for 33 years as foreman of the Maryland State Police caferteria. Because she was so well loved by its members, state troopers acted as honorary pallbearers.

According to members of her family, Mrs. Lopez's biggest hobby was caring for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Bernard Grant, 55, buried on Thursday

Funeral services for Bernard Chevers Grant, 55, 29 Malcolm Road, Springfield, Mass., were held Thursday at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, where he was a lifetime member and had served as an altar boy at the old Orchard St. building.

Father Lloyd George officiated.

Mr Grant died suddenly at his home in Springfield, Sunday.

Born July 7, 1920, in Baltimore, he was the son of the late Morgan State College Dean George C. Grant and Mrs. Marguerite Westcott Grant.

A vetrean of World War 2, he had served in France and had received a Good Conduct Medal, Victory ribbon and the European - African Middle East Service Ribbon.

He attended Dunbar Junior High and Douglass Senior High Schools.

Mr. Grant was married to the former Miss Alesse Sanders from 1941 to 1956. She died in 1967.

A native of northeast Baltimore, he opened a tailor shop in that area shortly after he was discharged from the Army, but he had been disabled for the past 16 years.
