March 1 MTA rates feature zones and premium service

The MTA, this week released a fully detailed accounting of its March 1, fare increase. The nine page document formulated after six (6) public hearings, two each in Baltimore City, Baltimore County and Anne Arundel County raises rush hour fares to 40 cents and creates a whole system of zone tariffs and differentiating fares for students, senior citizens and the handicapped.

The report shows that MTA Administrator, Walter J. Addison determined three major changes.

They include: 24 hour availability of 15 cent special tokens for senior citizens which can be bought two for 35 cents.

— students traveling to and from school will be exempt from cash zone fares.

— rates for monthly passes shall start at a minimum of $14 with increments of $3.50 for each zone and $3.50 for premium service.

Fares and time schedule for each category follow

Each passenger shall be required to pay at least an initial fare upon entering a bus, with the exception of transfers, that shall consist of either:

— a cash fare as hereinafter set forth

— a regular or special token as hereinafter set forth.

— a valid monthly pass

Depending on the location of boarding, time of day, type of service, class of passenger and other factors hereinafter set forth, additional fares beyond the initial fare may be required.

Weekday Peak Hours

6 a.m. to 9 a.m. — 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. — 40 cents cash; or one (1) regular fare token; or monthly pass

Weekday Off-Peak Hours

9 a.m. to 3 p.m. 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. — 35 cents cash or one (1) regular fare token; or monthly pass

All Day Saturday, Sunday, Designated Holidays

Same as weekday off-peak hours

Children

Children under six (6) years of age will be permitted to ride free when accompanied by a full-fare paying adult passenger. No more than two (2) children under six (6) years of age will be permitted to ride free with one (1) full-fare paying adult passenger.

Students

25 cents cash on school days only when attending public, parochial and private schools up to and including high school grades, upon presentation of an authorized school identification card properly filled out and certified by appropriate school authorities.

Valid dated bus tickets issued by the Baltimore City Public Schools for students qualifying for free transportation, boarding within the city limits, displaying a valid identification card bearing identical serial number of ticket traveling to or from school on scheduled school days.

Day School: — Good only between 6:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Night school: Good only between 6:00 p.m. and 11:00 p.m.

Handicapped Senior Citizens

One (1) brown-colored special handicapped/senior citizen token upon presentation of special identification card issued by the Mass Transit Administration to those qualified as handicapped or senior citizens. (Valid 24 hours per day).

Transfer Charges

At the time of payment of initial fare, a transfer may be purchased for 5 cents additional for transfer to other lines. Transfers will not be valid for a return trip nor for periods of time greater than normally required to complete a continuous journey. Monthly pass holders will not be subject to the 5 cents transfer charge.

Issuance and Use of Transfers

1. Transfers will be punched at the time issued with the route number and branch from which issued.

2. Transfers are to be used at transfer points, as described in 4 below, for the continuation of a trip in the same general direction when the use of more than one bus is required to complete a trip.

3. Transfers are not to be used for stop-over privileges.

4. A "Transfer Point" is where lines intersect, converge, diverge, or are

Miss Moore remembered

Members of the Constance H. Moore Memorial Scholarship Committee sponsored their 10th annual musical in memory of the late Miss Constance Helois Moore at the Sharon Baptist Church last Sunday.

In 1966, a Memorial Scholarship Fund was started in memory of Miss Moore, the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James L. Moore.

Connie, the name by which she wished to be known, graduated from Edmondson High School with honor.

At the time of her death on June 27, 1965, of lupus erythematosus, she was a student at Morgan State College. She saw that there was a great need for people to work with the handicapped. It was for this reason she was preparing herself to enter the field of physical therapy.

Her father, family, and many friends established a Memorial Scholarship Fund in her memory in May of 1966. Each year, on the Sunday closest to Feb. 12 (her birthday,) a musical is presented at Sharon Baptist Church as a memorial and to benefit the Fund.

State bar supports pay hike for federal judges

The Maryland State Bar Association has expressed support for higher salaries for federal judges.

A statement issued by Wilbur D. Preston, president of the state association stated members of the organization have "consistently expressed concern over the inadequate salaries paid to federal judges."

Mr. Preston said the problem of inadequate compensation for Federal judges was probably more acute in Maryland than in most places.

"The United States District Court for the District of Maryland is recognized as one of the strongest District benches in the nation.

In addition to that, the case load of the United States District Court in Maryland contains a large number of cases of unusual complexity. It is not reasonable to assume that the high quality of our Federal Court can be maintained indefinitely unless our judges receive adequate compensation."

SIAMESE TWINS, successfully separated by a team of doctors last month in Wichita, Kan. were scheduled under court order to be placed in a foster home. However, one of the three-month old girls was taken last week by their father, William Cates, from the hospital where the infants were recuperating from their surgery.

Siamese twin taken from hospital bed

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI) — A man who identified himself as Willie L. Cates said he took one of his 3-month-old Siamese twin daughters from her hospital crib and will keep her because of a state "Conspiracy" to deny him custody.

Friends and relatives tried to persuade Cates to return the child and surrender last week. Police would not provide details on their success.

Cates, 20, told nurses he wanted to see the babies separated by surgery, one more time before the state social and rehabilitation services department placed them in a foster home. He grabbed Millie Lula from her crib and outraced nurses and guards to a waiting car.

The other child, Anna Marie, was left undisturbed in her crib.

A man identifying himself as Cates called a newspaper last Friday and said there had been "An act of conspiracy against our family from the beginning."

Last Thursday night a man identifying himself as Cates said the custody fight was "a racial thing" because he is black and the mother is Mexican - American. He vowed to fight for custody of the children.

In the telephone call last Friday, Cates claimed that the twins' mother — also being sought by authorities as a missing person — was married to another man.

However, court records showed their mother, earlier identified as Ruth Cates, 31, actually was Ruth Ann Montano and was married to another man although she had been with Cates, the twin's natural father. Authorities also did not know the whereabouts of her husband, the legal father.

A court petition seeking state custody of the children was filed this week in Juvenile court, alleging she again disappeared Feb. 1.

Officers said she also had disappeared before the Jan. 28 surgery separating the twins and that several years ago an infant was taken from her because it did not receive proper care.

Juvenile authorities took action this week because the twins were ready to be released from St. Joseph Hospital, where Cates worked as a janitor.

Social service officials said they were in the process of placing Anna Marie in a foster home and would try to place Millie Lula in the same home when she was returned.

Mrs. Pinkney dies 24 days after burying her husband

Mrs. Marie Byrd Pinkney, 75, died 24 days after burying her husband, Roland Pinkney, a self employed contractor.

Relatives told the AFRO, "Mrs. Pinkney's granddaughter was taking her (Mrs. Pinkney) to get her eyes examined, when she collapsed in her granddaughter's arms.

"She was pronounced dead at North Arundel General Hospital." Mr. Pinkney, 75, suffered a heart attack Jan. 22 on his way to work and later died at Anne Arundel Hospital.

Funeral services were held today (Friday) for Mrs. Pinkney at Morning Star Baptist Church. She is buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Pinkney was a member of the Silver Leaf Club at Morning Star and the Women's Progressive League.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Bonze and Mrs. Thelma Bates; one son, George Pinkney, eight grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Cora B. Spell and Miss Wilimenia Pinkney, one foster son, William Keyes and a godson, Thomas Seaborn.

The report also includes a schedule of zone tariffs which show that the Express and Park 'N Ride to the stadium during sporting events will 81; the downtown shuttle costs 10 cents per passenger.

Super Sunday tickets valid between 5 a.m. and 12 midnight on Sundays and designated holidays will cost 60 cents. Zone fares will cost an additional five cents per zone.

Single tokens will cost 40 cents and there will be a multiple token discount of 10 tokens for $3.75.

Monthly Passes

Regular service: Monthly passes may be purchased for the amounts indicated on the following table for unlimited rides on regular route service.

Passes for the central fare zone (zone 1) will require no cash fare payments upon boarding the bus for any initial fare or transfer charge. Travel beyond the central fare zone would require appropriate cash zone fare payments.

Passes for zones beyond the central fare zone will require neither initial fare, transfer charge or cash zone fare payments for any travel between that zone and the central fare zone and return.

Regular Service passes will not affect the requirements for Premium Service fares.

Premium service: All the provisions of Regular Service Monthly Pass will apply with the addition that no cash Premium Service fares need be paid upon boarding the bus.

Riding within zones stipulated on the pass: The pass will cover full payment of fare when used within zones stipulated. This will include riding through the central zone to the corresponding zone on the other side of the central zone.

Riding beyond the zones stipulated on the pass: When riding outbound, a pass holder will be required to pay additional zone fares for all zones beyond the zone stipulated on the pass.

Riding with a pass on the Numbers 2, 55 and 77 lines: Any monthly pass will be accepted for unlimited rides on the No. 2 line between Fox Ridge and Overlea; the No. 55 line between Carney, Overlea, Parkville and The Greater Baltimore Medical Center; and the No. 77 line between Pikesville and The University of Maryland Baltimore County.
