CONSUMER CORNER

Save $300. a Year on Lunches?

By some official estiminate, you can save $250 to 320 a year by brown bagging. That's a lot of steak dinners.

Such large savings may be an exaggeration for you but they are based on real figures, so if you're looking for a place to cut costs, consider a switch even once or twice a week. Just toting on Tuesday might put $50 in your pocket.

A wide-mouth vacuum bottle lets you tote yogurt, stew or milkshakes. Turkey and meatloaf sandwiches made and frozen in advance are great — they thaw by noon and keep. Raw fruits and vegetables, hard boiled eggs in their shells, and cheese triangles cool until then.

Consumer Affairs folks often frown on desserts but lunch boxes need a final sweet touch and there are 1000 personal sized sweets from candies to wee boxes of sugar coated cereals to choose from. Tasty savings.
