Columbia Capers

By Pinnie C. Ross

Thanks to Kimberly Bray, a Jr. Miss Model, for her original Valentine card. Thoughtful, little Kimberly remembered me at Christmas with a tiny plant. Kimberly had made the Valentine heart and attached it to a bag of miniature hearts.

(Now how can one hold back tears when something like that happens? I didn't.)

Thanks to all of our very good friends and acquaintances for their kind expressions of sunshine while our daughter Rae was hospitalized here in the Columbia Hospital.

Telephone calls, letters, cards, huge balloons, plants and beautiful flowers, and prayers helped her to recover. Rae has gone back to school now (Adelphi University). Thanks to God and all of you for your many prayers.

Two nice notes came in the mail box recently. I must share them with you. So often when you invite guests to parties it's never a thank you after it's over, just before leaving perhaps they will say "thanks for the invite." but these two notes were so beautiful we wahted to share them:

"Dear Bill and Pinnie. As Ernie and I chatted introspect about the holidays we often mentioned the most enjoyable evening spent in your beautiful home. Thanks so very much for having us. It was a great 'get together,' Ernie and Lucille." (Ernie is the former Grand National Polemarch, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.)

Another nice one:

"Dear Bill and Pinnie. As I reflect upon the holiday season the overwhelming memory was the fantastic evening Which Floyd and I spent at your home. The exquisite combination of warm hospitality, lovely people and delicious food made for an elegant evening.

"Floyd joins me in extending to the two of you our deepest gratitude for such a beautiful memory.—Brenda and Floyd Grayson."

It was a natural swinging affair at the Annapolis Armory last week when the Annapolis Chaper of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity had their annual Red and White Ball.

The huge arena was packed to capacity to hear and dance by the music of Bobby Felder's Band. According to Dr. Sam Massey, "We don't take chances, because of his busy schedule. We book him from one year to the other in advance." Those Annapolis Silhouettes played their role as supporting wives to their husbands doing their usual thing, selling raffle tickets toward their fund-raiser, to help children in the hospitals.

The wives had their raffle gifts on display at the door, and you could not sneak by them to get into the room.

During the intermission Daniel Palmer, a retired Annapolis school teacher, received Kappa's Decoy, an outstanding award for 10 years of diligent service, inspiration, dedication, and devotion to his chapter. Mr. Henry Auston is chapter polemarch.

It was a pleasure to have seen Mr. and Mrs. (Bernice) Steven Gibson, long-time Arundel County teachers, also Mr. and Mrs. (Hannah) John Chambers. Mr. Chambers is the City Council member in Annapolis.

Mr. Palmer expressed how happy he was to have us there and that he wanted each person to introduce himself so that others would know who you are and what you are about. So it commenced, and was it fun.

JUST IN TIME—Ms. Victoria Thomas of Hyattsville, Md. was one of the 1,300 area cigarette smokers who received a complimentary package of Long Johns. The American Tobacco Co. promoted the new 120mm brand in the Baltimore-Washington areas for 13 weeks. You can pick up a pack at your favorite tobacco counter.

Mrs. Rose is producer of teen pageant here

COLUMBIA — Pinnie's Charm Studio located here has become the Maryland producer of the Miss U.S. Talented Teen Maryland Pageant. The announcement came this week from Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jackson (Alice), New York national producers for the Miss U.S. Talented Teen Pageant.

Mrs. Ross is no stranger to the state; in previous years she was the Howard County sponsor. In 1973, her local winner, Edna Hill of Columbia, won the national title in New York.

In addition to her directing the state pageant, Miss U.S. Teen, last year, she also directed the Miss NATRA Pageant (National Association for Television and Radio Artists).

Mrs. Ross is the owner and director of Pinnie's Charm Studio and is known throughout the Baltimore metropolitan area for her unique fashion shows with her special group called "The Little Princess."

She is an active community worker serving numerous non-profit organizations, among them are: Jack and Jill of America, Inc., Columbia Chapter; Baltimore Urban League Guild, NAACP and Kappa's Silhouettes, Columnoia.

She is a member and diligent worker of St. John Baptist Church, past board member, steering committee member (Emerging Church), treasurer of the St. John Baptist Choir where she served as president for two years.

Mrs. Ross has merited many outstanding awards including an award from the Columbia Wilde Lake Village Board for Community Service, a business award presented by Women's Day Committee, Douglas Memorial Church, Baltimore. The most recent award came from the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Recognition Committee, as one of Baltimore's Outstanding Women, 1975 International Woman's Year — In the category of Youth Development.

In addition, Mrs. Ross writes the column "Columbia Capers" which appears weekly in the AFRO.
