

credit as treasurer, and make monthly reports of receipts, disbursements and balances ; and all such money shall be paid out only by the order of council approved by the mayor. He shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, and give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of not less than five thousand dollars, to be approved by the mayor and council, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties ; and his books shall be subject to the inspection of any taxpayer upon request.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the policeman shall be vested and clothed with all the police powers of constables and any one resisting him in the discharge of his duties, shall be liable upon conviction before the mayor to punishment in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable, the policeman shall annually make an accurate alphabetical list of all the voters within the corporate limits, and make returns of same to the clerk of the council, and also a report of all the dogs, and by whom owned, that are kept within the corporation, and the policeman shall perform such other duties as are or shall be imposed upon him by law or ordinance or by order of the mayor or council, and he shall pay over all fines or collections coming into his hands to the treasurer monthly, and the policeman before entering upon his duties shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful performance of his duties, for the enforcement of the ordinances of the town, and the preservation of its peace and good order ; and the policeman shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties. Policemen.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the tax collector, before entering upon the discharge of his duties shall subscribe to an oath for the faithful discharge of his duties, and give bond to the State of Maryland in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars, to be approved by the mayor and council, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, he shall collect all taxes that may be levied by law, ordinance or otherwise, and shall pay the same monthly to the treasurer, he shall keep safe and return when demanded, his tax assessment books, bills, papers and receipts, and shall make monthly reports of his collections, his books shall be subject to inspection by any taxpayer upon request all such taxes shall be collected as county taxes are now collected in Worcester County unless otherwise provided. Tax Collector

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the night watchman shall be vested with all the police powers of constable, and any person resisting him in the discharge of his duties