beautiful spring hats by Nell Sheridan worn by the lawyers wives — and did they look good.

Participating in the show were Holiday Fashionf on Pennsylvania Ave., Beyda Petite, Columbia Mall, and Flair Men's Wear.

Some of the participating models included beautiful Vashti McKenzie, who upset the audience with her smooth turns. Charming Mrs. Louise Johnson, chairperson for the luncheon, was absolutely stunning in all of the garments she wore.

Represented studios were Flair — Willia Bland, Travis Winkey, and Pinnie's Charm Studio.

The final portion of the show was captured by Mitchell Fur Company.

Cute Robin Bridgeforth, first runner-up for the Miss U.S. Talented Teen Pageant, was presented to the audience. Robin is substituting for Patricia Hicks, State Queen, who is on tour for six weeks in Charleston, W.Va., with a drama group. (Cuff Note): One hundred and fifty dollars a week for six weeks sounds prettygood for a 16-year-old student.

Thought for Today: Nothing is a waste of time if you use the experience wisely . . . Auguste Robin.

FOCUS ON...

By Lee Fitzpatrick

Welcome Back! MAURICE GLEEN. After spending over two years working in the District of Columbia, Maurice could no longer resist his longing for his newly found home. Maurice has returned to Baltimore, and the Baltimore City Public Schools as a teacher of Exceptional Children.

You're getting better each day, MRS. MARY LOPEZ, of Hodges, N.C. At age 94 (March 15), Mrs. Lopez had her first airplane flight.

What was her reaction? Mrs. Lopez said, "The train will never 'toot' at me again." The latter is in tofn visiting her daughter and granddaughter ROSEMARY BACKUS. Rosemary is a "Crisis Teacher" at Northernparkway Junior High School.

Further, Rosemary has been keeping herself busy preparing herself for modeling in the upcoming Provident Hospital's Women's Auxiliary Fashion Show, in addition to making plans for entering law school in September, 1976.

Congratulations to PHYLLIS CALLAHAN SMITH, who has been listed in WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN WOMEN 1975-1976 Edition). Phyllis is a Morgan State University graduate, and she is currently employed as a Program Coordinator for Community Services Branch of Social Services at the District of Columbia Childrens' Center, in Laurel, Md.

DIRECT FOCUS ON: PERCY WINFIELD THOMAS

"If I can make it; there are a great deal of kids out here who can make it." These words, sincerely spoken by PERCY WINFIELD THOMAS.

Motivation. Yes fortunately Percy still remembers his roots and his primary concern is reaching youth of similar backgrounds. In doing this, Percy's objective is helping these youth establish new "Self-Images." Precy has recently returned from Los Angeles, Calif., where he spent one year conducting Anthropological Research in conjunction with his doctoral studies at the Johns Hopkins University.

Percy's stay on the West Coast was extremely rewarding for several reasons. He was able to work very closely with several juvenile gangs in the Watts area, compile pertinent data, and in cooperation with other community resources assisted in planning and setting up programs for the benefit of those who had been labeled "outcast."

Secondly, Percy's extensive involvement with the Baltimore Arena Players enabled him to obtain a bit part in the film production of "RIVER NIGER," starring, James Earl Jones and Cicely Tyson. Also, while in Watts, Percy appear ed in Roger Mosely's production of "Baby Make Three," at the Mafundi Institute also in Watts.

PERCY WINFIELD THOMAS
Hopes to receive doctorate in June

Since returning to Baltimore, Percy has started the Metro-Drama Workshop housed in the Walbrook Urban Services Building. In addition, Percy has volunteered his services, and has worked with a group of Garrison Junior High students on drama techniques.

When time permits, Percy enjoys writing poetry, and playing chess. Currently, Percy is trying his hand at writing a screen play. In the realm of sports, Percy has also found time to play with a Flag Football Team. Percy is a graduate of the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore Division, and anticipates receiving his Doctor of Science Degree from Johns Hopkins University in June of 1976.

As a part of his inservice training, for his degree, Percy is also doing his internship at the National Institute on Alcohol, Alcohol Abuse, and Alcoholism (NIAAA). This is a federally funded program under the Natiosal Institute of Mental Health. In addition, Percy has worked as a part-time Associate Professor at Coppin State College as well as teachinga Mental Health Administrative course at Morgan State University.

Currently, Percy is appearing in a production at Fells Point Little Theater. This production, "Slow Dance on the Killing Ground," is running from March 12-April 12.

The Thomases reside in the old John Eager Howard Mansion which is listed as a historical landmark in Baltimore County. Percy is married to Dr. Beatrice Denefield, local psychiatrist and is the father of four children. Also Percy is a member of Kappa Alpha Phi Fraternity.

For those of you who are theater goers, you might remember Percy from a few of the following credits with the ARENA PLAYERS. "No Place to Be Somebody." "Wait Until Dark." "To Be Young Gifted and Black." "Black Mass," "In New England Winter," and others.

Scene Four, Act: III is over, but by no means has the curtain fallen on the last milestone In the life of PERCY WINFIELD THOMAS.

portunity Film Festival held recently in the Multi Purpose room should include this program as a "must" the next time around. The four day festival included: "Heritage in Black" "Black History-Lost, Stolen or Strayed" "The Black American Woman" and the "Brotherhood of Man."

The Strip Alumni is planning to do it again. This time the group that has not forgotten "from whence they came" will dine and dance at Blue Crest-North on Saturday, April 10. Frank Covert is the man to contact for tickets. He can be reached at 466-1258.

The greeting card pulled from the mailbox was signed: Frances and Rodney Sykes. The message read, "Nothin' extra special brewin" "Just a Howdy and How Ya Doin" "Thinking of you." Some people think of the nicest ways to send cheer.

Founders' observance for Madison Ave. YWCA

A "Founder's Month" event has been scheduled on March 27 to observe the eighteth birthday of the YWCA (Young Women's Christian Association) at 1912 Madison Ave. Also, a membership drive began March 1.

A full day of events on Saturday, March 27 from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. includes a panel discussion, film, lunch, three exhibits and a program of historic fashion and dance. The program provides visitors with an opportunity to place the history of the YWCA and its active women in the perspective of the Baltimore community and to experience nostalgia by lunching in the YWCA dining room, presently closed, but for many years a favorite gathering spot. Admission is $6 per person for the day's events and catered lunch. Reservations are due March 22.

Panel discussion on March 27 is titled "In Context: Black Women in the YWCA of Baltimore, 1896 to 1976." Panelists include, Mrs. Phylis Hathaway, Maryland State Commission on Afro-American and Indian History; Mrs. Ethel J. Day, retired administrative assistant to the president, Coppin State College; Mrs. Grace B. Hunt, retired executive director of the YWCA of Greater Baltimore; Dr. Beryl W. Williams, Dean, Center for Continuing Education, Morgan State University.

Three exhibits include the Peale exhibit of documents and photographs, "Black Presence in Maryland, 1810-1915"; a display land, 1813-1915"; a display orabilia, prepared by the YWCA Business and Professional Women's Club; and the work of Horace Lancaster, fashion designer and portrait painter.

A goal of 1600 members has been set by volunteers conducting a membership drive between March 1 and May 31. A special appeal is being made to women's organizations and churches. Awards will be given women who have brought in the greatest number of members during the drive.

Chairperson for the drive is Mrs. Waetina Coles, co-chairpersons are Mrs. Vivian Pendleton and Miss Pattie Holloway.

For information or reservations for the above activities or for membership applications, the number to call is 669-1831, the Madison Avenue YWCA.

Sympathy cards of the family of the late Myrtle Squirrel who was buried recently. She was the sister of Roy Noel (Carrie) and Marie Noel. She is also survived by a sister-in-law, Mamie Noel.

"Get Well" cards to Hannah Lindsey (Vernell). She has been a patient at North Charles Street General Hospital. She has our prayers and good wishes. Even though Hannah was sick when her program "On Drug Abuse" was held at Morning Star Baptist Church, the members of the Women's Civic League and others in the community turned out to hear Sgt. Bill Turner of the Baltimore County Police Department. Our only wish is that programs of this nature would attract more of the folks in our area, especially parents and our young people. It was an education in itself and an evening well spent.

Did you know that the Civic League is making contributions to the Building Fund at Morning Star Baptist Church in memory of one of their late members, Agnes Mitchell?

Prayers for Cleaver Poag who was in an automobile accident in New Mexico while on her way to California to visit her daughters. She is now in a hospital in California so that she may be near her family. Cleaver is the well known driver education teacher at Woodlawn Senior High School and a life long member of Grace A.M.E. Church. I will try to inform you next week where you can send cards to her. We are all praying and pulling for you, Cleaver.

The fashion show that was co-chaired by Gloria Terrel and Lillian Cornish was truly a great success. The theme of the show was "Fashions in Shades of Green" and Mandi Henson was the commentator and addlibbed beautifully. The fashions were: "For the Very Young" "Platinum Green" "That 9-5 Look" "Clover and Gals" "For all Occasions" "Cool Cotton" "Jungle Fever" "Formal Affair."

The surprise for the evening was the presentation of four gubernatorial awards to Jerome Holden (Irene's family), Mr. and Mrs. Holland and the parents of Brenda Hedgepeth. Reverend Poag gave the benediction. The entire audience stood and sang "Reach Out and Touch."

The members of the hostess committee were: Deores Counselor, chairperson; Louise Holley, Elaine Jarvis, Roberta McKinney, Cleaver Poag, Eleanor Randall, Geneva Randal, Barbara Terrell, and Martha Russell.

Congratulations to Gloria and Lillian and their committee. You gals did a fine job. I forgot to tell you that many of the participants made their own outfits.

When Mrs. Addie Hall celebrated her 74th birthday recently, she shared her big day with the members of her Golden Age Group at their weekly Friday meeting. Miss Addie had told me prior to her birthday that she wanted to celebrate her day with her friends. Well, she did and had all the works that go along with one's birthday. You would not believe that this lady is 74. Here's hoping that she will live to see many more. Mrs. Hall lives in Orlla and is an active member of St. Mark's Catholic Church here in Catonsville.

DeVera Foreman will be spending her spring vacation (Edwina) Foreman. DeVera attends Williams College in Williamsburg, Mass. where she is a psychology major.

Our daughter, Debbie, chose to spend her spring break visiting our friends, the Raleigh Bryants (Jackie) and their children in Savannah, Ga. Jackie and Raleigh and their children have many friends in the Baltimore area.

Sherman and Ruby Polley (Columbia) have recently returned from Orlando, Florida where they were the weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Shoffner (Carrie). Although the Shoffners are residents of Weldon, N.C., he is a member of the Florida Guardsmen Chapter. Among the Baltimore guardsmen seen were Charles and Dot Brown, Ray and Sarah Gray, and the latest member to be taken into the Baltimore group, Irvin (Millie) Henderson. Despite their busy schedule, the Shoffners were able to spend a few hours with the Poleys. More about them in a forthcoming column.

Karen Poley was home for her spring break last week. This summer she will travel in England with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, doing Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. She will be doing two concerts at the Kennedy Center before school closes. This personable young lady is a sophomore at the University of Maryland, College Park. Continue the good work, Karen. We are very proud of you.

Reach Out And Touch (Somebody's Hand): (Just try) Take a little time out of our busy day. To give encouragement to someone Who's lost the way. Or would I be talking to a strong, if I asked you to share a problem that's not your own. We chance things if we start giving. Why don't you reach out and touch somebody's hand.

(This was taken from the fashion show program. It was sung by the audience at the closing.)
