Health, Education and Welfare Secretary David Mathews and Social Security Commissioner, James B. Cardwell have jointly announced the appointment of Jarold A. Kieffer as Deputy Commissioner of Social Security.

The appointment marks a return to service at HEW for Mr. Kieffer, who, at age 52, is known for his broad experience in government and for his achievements in the academic world. he served as Assistant to the Secretary from 1968 to 1981, and is currently staff director of the Presidents Biomedical Research Panel, a group that is evaluating programs at the National Institutes of Health and the Alcohol, Drug Abuse, and Mental Health Administration.

Mr. Kieffer is filling the vacancy created by Arthur E. Hess, who retired last summer as Deputy Commissioner of Social Security. Secretary Mathews and Commissioner Cardwell noted that Mr. Kieffer "brings to the Social Security Administration a wealth of experience in government service and a special interest in public programs aimed at helping the aged and the poor. His return to HEW is very welcome."

A native of Minneapolis, Minn., he was educated at the University of Minnesota, where he received both a bachelor's degree and a doctor of philosophy degree. He served in the South Pacific in World War II.

Mr. Kieffer lives in Fairfax, Va. with his wife, Frances and three children.

International Toastmistress award winner, Mrs. Verna Day highlighted the program at the recent Baha'i Intercalary Days Ayyami Ha' Buffet Dinner sponsored by the Feast and Holy Days Committee of the Baltimore Bahai Community.

Mrs. Day delivered her award winning speech "My Signs Are Killing Me." at the Meushaw Motor Inn affair. Ayami Ha' is a time of joy and good will preceding 19 Days of Fasting.

The Tasting period ended March 21 when the New Year celebration began with an open house at the Baltimore Bahai Center. Guest speaker for the open house was Ms. Debbie Bley of Harford Ct., Md.

Employee Development Specialist Ruth Norris was the recipient of the Community Service Citation presented by the Alpha Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta during their annual Finer Womanhood Week.

In addition to her job at SSA, Mrs. Norris is a telephone counselor and member of the Board of Directors of Contact Baltimore and the Volunteers of the Social Security Administration.

She is a volunteer at Spring Grove Hospital and the Women In Prison Project; she has also served as secretary for the Cherry Hill Association Council; acted as a volunteer worker for the John F. Kennedy Institute; and was the founder for a Social Action Group, "Sisters In Unity."

After graduating from Douglass High School, Mrs. Norris attended Coppin State Collegen receiving the bachelor of science degree in elementary education. She holds a master of education degree in counseling from Johns Hopkins University and is currently enrolled in the Master of Theology Program of Johns Hopkins University. Mrs. Norris is a member of Heritage United Church of Christ and is a member of the Deaconate Board; convenor, of Lay Training Committee and coordinator of Inner City Breakfast.

She is the wife of James O. Norris, and mother of four children: Owen 17; Kendall, 16; Dwayne, 10; and Myra,6.

Mrs. Virginia Jones will be the guest of honor on April 2, at a retirement luncheon given by her coworkers at the 707 Calvert St., building. Committee members for the luncheon are Sarah Speaks, Estelle Fowers and Georgia Rayman.

Cook and Save with Campbell's Soups
Save this week with chicken

Chicken is one of the best buys in the supermarket. It's high in protein and relatively low in cost. To make it an even better value, buy whole chickens and split them yourself. Whole chickens are cheaper by the pound than cut-up chicken.

And here's another way to economize with chicken and other meats: by cooking with Campbell's Soup. Campbell's Soup can help stretch meat dishes. So many Campbell's Soups are ideal for cooking. Look for recipes on the labels. And try this delicious chicken and rice dish using Campbell's Tomato Soup. It's enough for a family of six.

Start living the Campbell Life. And save.

CHICKEN CREOLE
1 three-pound chicken, cut up
Salt and pepper
Paprika
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
2 green peppers, chopped
2 onions, chopped
1 can (10½ ounces) Campbell's Tomato Soup
½ soup can water
1 cup diced cooked ham, sausage, or pork
¼ to ½ teaspoon red pepper flakes
½ teaspoon salt
Cooked rice
1. Wash and dry chicken; season chicken generously with salt, pepper, and paprika.
2. Cover; refrigerate until ready to use.
3. In large heavy pan, slowly brown chicken in bacon drippings (about 20 minutes); remove.
4. Add green pepper and onion; cook until onion is limp.
5. Return chicken to pan; add remaining ingredients except rice.
6. Cover; cook over low heat 35 minutes or until done. Stir occasionally.
7. Skim excess fat from sauce; thicken if desired.
Serve over rice, with Cranberry-Orange relish, and hot biscuits.
Makes 6 servings.

Give me the Campbell Life.

Hints For Homemakers

We're now well enough along in our bicentennial year that everyone is aware that the country is celebrating its 200th birthday. During this historic period, we are witnessing many new developments and changes which affect our daily lifestyles—most often for the better.

CONCENTRATED 'all' FOR SPARKLING-CLEAN WASHLOADS

Have you ever stopped to think how we did our laundry, say, 50 years ago? The memories of the washtub, scrubbing board and boiler are still fresh in my mind.

Today, most laundry is done by automatic washing machines, but the detergent you use determines to a great degree how well your clothes are cleaned.

That's why I use CONCENTRATED "all." It removes oily spots as well as dirt and other soils. The bleach, borax and brighteners contained in every box of CONCENTRATED "all" help to solve the most difficult laundry problems.

In fact, CONCENTRATED "all" is good for the whole wash. There is little need for pre-treating or pre-soaking greasy stains when you use it.

Because of its concentrated form, you use less of CONCENTRATED "all" than most other leading powder laundry detergents.

In this age of grease and grime, let me recommend that you try using CONCENTRATED "all." Once you do, you'll find the secret of sparkling-clean washloads.

DOVE IS KIND TO YOUR HANDS

Times have changed household habits in many ways, with so many new inventions on the market, but dishes are still being washed by hand in most homes.

Dishwashing is a household task that most women are especially concerned about because it could have a direct effect on the appearance of their hands.

DOVE LIQUID can help ease your concerns. The more you wash dishes, the more you will need DOVE LIQUID.

Because DOVE is so very mild, you can be confident your hands will stay soft and pretty when you use it.

This dishwashing detergent cleans your dishes swiftly and efficiently, and DOVE is so kind to your hands.

In these days when we are so conscious of our personal care, all women want to leave the kitchen with soft, pretty hands. Take my word for it, DOVE LIQUID will not let you down.

LIGHT BLEND JOINS THE IMPERIAL LINE

A new product has just been added to the fine family of IMPERIAL margarines. It's called LIGHT BLEND IMPERIAL, and it's packaged in an attractive white carton with the familiar IMPERIAL crown in the left-hand corner.

If you read the label, you will find it says "LIGHT BLEND IMPERIAL 60% vegetable oil spread."

New LIGHT BLEND IMPERIAL has many of the excellent qualities of regular IMPERIAL but with 25% less fat than regular IMPERIAL. What's more, it sells for about 10¢ less.

LIGHT BLEND IMPERIAL has a light delicate taste and is available in stick and soft tub forms. When you try it, you will find that it spreads easily and does an excellent job of seasoning vegetables and casseroles.

The IMPERIAL family already includes Stick, Diet and Sof-Spread. It is my guess you will like LIGHT BLEND IMPERIAL as much as your other IMPERIAL favorites. I did!

LIFEBUOY'S DOUBLE ACTION

Speaking of changes, LIFEBUOY soap has made some, too. Its bright new wrapper has silver raindrops.

LIFEBUOY has been around since 1895, and it still does a great double-action job of cleaning and providing deodorant protection.

LIFEBUOY not only removes the dirt and sweat from the body, but it gives you a whole day's protection with each refreshing bath or shower.

At the rapid pace most of us move these days, LIFEBUOY is a soap that we should never be without. You'll always find a bar in the Kaiser home.

LIFEBUOY comes in three attractive designer colors—coral, white and green—to match any decor. It also comes in regular and bath sizes.

LIFEBUOY has a delightful fragrance to go with its fine cleaning power and deodorant properties.

What more could you ask for in a toilet soap!
