women have made in society from that date," she said.

Next on the platform was Ms. Mathis, who directed her comments to the audience concerning the laws protecting the consumer.

"Women are the primary consumer, we support the consumer world." She then emphasized the importance of women notifying the Consumer Protection Agency of any fraudulent practices by merchants or even if the women had any suspicions of wrongdoings by a merchant.

Ms. Msaon spoke on another apsect of sex discrimination and the law. She remarked, "The new discriminating laws are directed against employment and not just on the basis of sex. These laws are designed to help end discrimination based on race, sex, and age. Also, they are aimed at areas that govern hiring, promotions, and fringe benefits in companies and business."

"I am concerned about the laws that govern children and minors in the courts," stated Ms. Johnson. Following Ms. Johnson along the same line was Margaret Pecora.

In her delivery she stressed the importance of a family court in Maryland. "We have a terrible division of the family in our present court system, the purpose of the Family Court would be to bring families together" concluded Mrs. Pecora.

Following the presentations by the panelists, the audience and panelists participated in a question and answer session.

The "Women and the Law" forum was one of the activities sponsored by Bethel in conjunction with its Women's Day celebration to be held Sunday, March 28 commencing with the 8 a.m. worship. Activities will continue throughout the day. Cecelia Bryant, wife of Bethel's pastor, Dr. John Bryant, and Celonia Walden are the chairpersons of the celebration.

Local Club Notes

The recipient of each presentation was Dennis A. Gowie, executive director of Provident Hospital, Inc., and C. William Schneidreitch, Jr., president, of Board of Trustees, Kidney Foundation of Maryland.

Gowie said, as he was presented the donation, "I hope similar organizations will follow the lead to recognis ethe seed and concern to support the quality of health care delivered at Provident Hospital."

The auxiliary has always served in a very supportive and vital role with Provident Hospital, Inc. This year's fund-raising benefit given by the Auxilians was a successful way for the members to fulfill their motto "To Do More."

Have you ever had a week to begin in a beautiful way and hopefully end to the same tone? Well, it happened to me this past week. It started with the Day of Recollection" at the Immaculate Conception Church on Mosher St. and it is of today, Friday, an invitation to lunch at the Josephite Fathers Headquarters on Calvert St. at the invitation of Father (Carl Fisher, a young black Josephite father who is in residence at St. Veronica Church in Cherry Hill.

I met this personable young priest when he was the guest speaker at the Holy Name breakfast at Our Lady of Lourdes Church, a few months back.

On Sunday, after leaving the Immaculate, I dined with my uncle, Richard Peed and cousin Carmelita Campbell. That evening we visited Prisilla and Gaines Lansey to meet the author, Samuel F. Yette, the author of "The Choices" and who is now a professor at Howard University, teaching Journalism.

Sam was the keynote speaker at the smoker which was held in the hall of The Immaculate Conception Church, for the members of the joint chapters of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, the alumni chapter, Kappa Kappa Lambda (Alumnia Chapter) and Beta Alpha (College Chapter).

Gaines Jr. invited Sam to meet his parents and family after the meeting. It was an evening well spent.

Among the folks whom we met were Father Carl Fisher, Handley J. Nerment, one of the directors of the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Transportation, Washington, D.C. and Dr. Calvin Woodland, of Morgan University.

Among the nice people to see and renew old times with, were Bill and Madeline Murphy and their daughter, Laura, who is a senior at Wellsley.

The Willing Workers at Grace AME Church are having a "Ten Commandment Tea" on Sunday, April 4 at 4 p.m. Delores Counsellor is the chairperson. The Rev. Reginald Boston is the pastor.

Birthday greetings to Noreen "Pinky" Henson (Levern). Helping her to celebrate her day were her good buddies-Margierita Hill, Joyce Prekins, Diann Beverly, and Serreace Outlaw. Greetings also to George Savov who celebrated his birthday last Sunday.

The Making Of Friends

Life is sweet just because of the friends we have made and the things Which in common we share.

We want to live on, not just for ourselves, but because of the people who care.

It's giving and doing for somebody else:

On that all life's splendor depends.

And the joy of this world, when you're summed it all up,

Is found in the making of friends.

Many wonderful things are being done these days by our senior citizens. Over 200 babies have been welcomed into a world of comfort and warmth by the participation of the Senior Citizens of the Latrobe Homes. Several women meet weekly to sew layettes for expectant mothers who live in the Dunbar district. They group used donated yard goods and trimmings to make infant clothes and blankets. The assembled layettes are taken to the hospital to await the new arrival.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Janie Brown, the sewing group includes: Celestine Long, Grace Jackson, Alice Smith, Novella Newby. Others are Sarah Mary Edgar, Sarah Causion and co-chairman Inez Stephany.

The group is delighted when new mothers sometimes come back to show their babies dressed in the clothes the group has made.

Several staff persons at the Dunbar Department of Social Services have also contributed hand crocheted items to the layettes. They are: Irine DePontes, Maria Allen, Mary Brice, Gloria Slade, Carol McCoy and Janice Bell.

Congratulations to: Ronnie and Verna Covington, it's a baby boy, 9 lbs.; Jim and Gloria Allen, a 7 lb. boy, born March 19, named Eric.

Also, Jessica Williams celebrated her birthday, March 18; Shelia Brown's happy day was March 22, Senia Simpson will enjoy another birthday on March 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCoy plan to spend the weekend (March 28) in the Bahamas. Justine and Hael Brown will return to the city March 25 from visiting sick relatives in Baja, Calif. Girls, we are happy to know that your sister is much better.

The William Burton family is planning a summer vacation in Palestine. The date has not been set. Also, the Travel Club of the Latrobe Homes is sponsoring a trip to Canada for July 4.
