

A number of Telephones which were in use in the City of Baltimore in 1891, have been discontinued by subscribers in that city, involving by such withdrawal a decrease in gross revenue from 391 Telephones in Baltimore city, amounting to, $33,676.97.

SAMUEL M. BRYAN,

President Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, and of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore city.

BERNARD H. WARTHEN,

Auditor of each of the said Companies.

CITY OF WASHINGTON,

District of Columbia, to wit:

On this 10th day of March, in the year 1892, before the subscriber, a Notary Public, duly authorized to act within the District of Columbia, personally appeared Bernard H. Warthen, and made oath that he is the Auditor of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, and the Auditor of the accounts of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City, and that the foregoing statement is correct as shown by the books and accounts of said respective companies, and at the same time, also personally appeared before me Samuel M. Bryan, president of said Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, and of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore city, and made oath that the matters and facts, in relation to the gross revenue and expenses of said company, set forth in the foregoing statement, are true to the best of his knowledge and belief, as is also the statement as to the number of telephones in operation in 1891, which have been withdrawn, and as to increase in gross revenue for the year 1892, by reason of such withdrawal of subscribers.

SAMUEL M. BRYAN,

President of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, and of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore city.

BERNARD H. WARTHEN,

Auditor of said Companies.