—What really happened in the Primary here?

rude crowd booed and boohed.

Also, lagging behind and having trouble getting on the platform (trouble from guards), were City Councilman Mike Mitchell and his law partner, Blaine White, who were the ones who led Brown to victory in Baltimore.

It was disturbing! The AFRO was on the platform and witnessed it.

Standing at the elbow of Prince Georges County Executive Windfield Kelly, we heard him say in jesting fashion, something about being a dirty old machine politician."

But, that's not the story at this moment.

The "No Problem" attitude of the Carter - for - President national leaders is evident and the big news is the fact that they're more confident of winning their way to the White House.

Latest word is the announcement from Dick La Croix, assistant to National Headquarters Director Richard Weinstein, 2000 P St., NW, Washington.

The Citizens For Carter movement stretches from Maine to California and includes all states with Hawaii and Alaska in the bunch. Springing up in fantastic numbers are "Lawyers for Carter," Dictors for Carter," "Housewives for Carter" and "Just plain Folks for Carter."

On the Maryland scene, Senior House of Delegates Member Troy Brailey has been named head of the 7th Congressional District Citizens for Carter and a nationwide coordinator.

CITIZENS NAMED

Garth Weldon made the announcement Thursday from the DC headquarters. A high-level meeting will soon announce the whole organization.

Others already included are James Rouse, the developer of Columbia; Dr. James Blauk, Hayattsville; Earl Bracey, Cumberland; Mrs. Lannie Clark, Columbia; Baltimore County Councilman John Murphy; Garland Brown, Baltimore; Pickett Thomas, Columbia, (slated to become Town Manager), Sen. Rosalie Abrams, Baltimore; Dr. K. Bennett Bozman, pharmacist of Berlin.

Mike Collins, Baltimore teacher; C. Chipper Debuskey, Baltimore; Thomas Gillmer, teacher at the Naval Academy; Katherine Grant, Bettsville, director of DC. Baptist Women;

Also, James Patterson, National Maritime Union business agent; Pennsylvania's Sen. Joe Clark and Mayor Peter Flaherty, Pittsburgh, Pa.

BROWN CELEBRATION

Now, as to the Brown Victory Celebration at the Lord Baltimore, the crowd was so thick and the secret service so insistent, we were unable to escape and had to remain at the platform observing.

Fun and games were obvious from the beginning at about 9:50 p.m. when Hyman Pressman did an oldtime jitterbug with a beautiful black woman supporting Brown. This was a real highlight.

Just before that, a man who said he is Van Nostrand No. 195 of the Baltimore Police Dept., would allow no camera nor news reporters on the balcony. His attitude was too curt.

Hymie was dressed in a crushed velvet jacket and having a wild time as a cheer leader by the time 10 p.m. came.

At 10:10 p.m. he read a poem to Cong. Sarbanes as a man of courage The count was at that time, Carter-49.000 to Brown-85,165. At 10:15 p.m. Tydings had 115,738 to Sarbanes' 197,181.

DRINKS FOR ALL

The announcement came that there would be champagne for all and Gov. Brown "is due soon." The champagne turned out to be white and purple cold duck at about $1.85 a bottle, North Avenue price-wise.

Around 10:30 p.m., everybody had paper cups full including some small children from Dundalk who lapped it up, screaming, "We want Jerry." They could not have been over 12 or 14 years of age.

At 10:50 p.m., "Brown will be here soon," announced a plump toastmaster from the mike on the platform.

Outside, in all halls, they were still selling "mixed drinks" at $1.25 and beer at 75 cents? Who got the profit, no one seemed to know. The plump man on the platform said between drinks, "Prediction: Udall will win Michigan."

The jubilant carrying-on moutned at the platform band played Dixieland style music real loud.

THE MANDELS

At 11 p.m. sharp Gov. and Mrs. Mandel (wearing a green knit dress) arrived. We asked Mrs. Mandel who was in the lively, smartly-dressed party and she replied as she sat on the steps, "Mr. and Mrs. Deford Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Lockhard, Cecil County, Mr. Kelly and Frank Harris, the governor's aide.

Gov. Mandel welcomed questions from the news media told the AFRO Jerry Brown is what America wants, what the nation is looking for."

Gov. Brown arrived at 11:15 p.m. with his group and the secret service shuttled him through the crowd to the scores of mikes on the platform.

Why they stopped Mike Mitchell, Percy Pinkney and Blaine White I do not know. Mike edged in and was hard to be seen although he did get a foot on the platform.

The red, white and blue balloons rose to the ceiling and a few persons had shredded colored paper to throw, The Dundalk kids who enjoyed the wine really screamed at this point.

. when Brown said his favorite Bible quote, "The first shall be last and last first."

On the way out of the room, following the Gov. Brown group through what appeared to be a kitchen, we talked with Mike Mitchell who said, "We're moving forward in this country. The presidential contest in now wide open."

MIKE MITCHELL

Young Mitchell has reason to be proud of a victory he himself brought through. He and Ted Venetoulis journeyed to California to talk with Jerry Brown a few weeks ago.

Earlier when we met Gov. Brown's assistant, Mr. Pinkney, in the lobby, he revealed that the Citizens for Jerry Brown paid for Mike's and Ted's flight to California.

He also revealed that Gov. Brown paid "not one cold dime" to the Mitchells nor anyone else for what had been done in promoting the campaign in Maryland.

At that time, Pinkney said, "The Brown volunteers will carry the banner through November. The young voters will defeat Carter."

Asked why so much emphasis on Maryland's help for Gov. Brown, Mr. Pinkney replied, "Maryland is close to Washington." To other questions he replied asking, "Can you name one black person Carter has appointed in Georgia?"

And he added, "Gov. Brown has appointed 59 black citizens in key positions."

The Brown supporters left soon after 11:30 p.m. with only a few reluctant to go home.

Later when we passed the Charles St. Carter Headquarters, it appeared deserted and dark. On the window was a sign, "Bumper stickers, $1 donation." A Victory Celebration was to have been at a rural motel.

TRAGEDIES

Tragedies of the Primary were many. Here are but a few:

Mrs. Gladys C. Smith reports that her $15,000 motor home was taken from her Eutaw Place backyard and used by someone in campaigning. Returned Thursday night, she was having it checked by police.

Parents and small children were surrounded by police at North and Fulton when the adults sought payment for the youngsters campaign efforts.

Calling the AFRO, one father said someone drove his three small children around in the rain and had them put literature in doors but never paid them.

As he let the phone go from a sidewalk booth, he noted, "Here come some more police cars after us. The men who were to pay us are inside with the doors locked. I guess they called the police. They're everywhere."

Ali-Dunn bout saved

MUNICH, (UPI) — American promoter Bob Arum today (Friday) stepped in to sort out the financial tangle which threatened to prevent Muhammad Ali's heavyweight title defense against Briton Richard Dunn.

Local German promoters had contracted to pay Ali $85,000, with Arum paying the champion's million, but according to Arum, they have come through a quarter of a million dollars short.

According to the local organizers however, Ali's poor showing against Jimmy Young last month has hurt box office sales so much that they felt justified in withholding part of the purse.

"These guys are amateurs," said Arum. "I have had to step in because the show must go in."

The Newo York promoter, who has handled 15 of Ali's fights, said he stood to lose about $60,000 because of the dispute.

Pimlico-Roland Park incident may stem from basketball game

Mrs. Evelyn T. Beasley, principal of Roland Park Junior High School, said this week that the situation that resulted in the arrest of 15 students Wednesday appears to have started with a basketball game held several weeks ago.

According to a police report, the youths, all but one of them from Pimlico Junior High School, were arrested in the vicinity of the school about 9:30 a.m. and charged with trespassing on school property.

The one pupil, from Roland Park, was arrested and charged with assault. Police stated the youths have been released to the custody of their parents.

The students, according to the Region 5 School security supervisor, showed up at the school to even a score stemming from previous incidents. The official stated he had expected a fight however, he had thought it would develop about dismissal time instead of early in the morning.

Larry Burzan, chief of school security, said that last Friday a group of 20 to 25 youths from Pimlico came to fight at Roland Park but security officers managed to disperse them and no arrests were made.

Burzan also reported that there had been scattred fights Monday near the intersection of Roland Ave. and Northern Pkwy.

There was speculation among some school officials that the recent incidents were a result of a school rivalry that had gotten out of hand. Reports indicate the regional security chief intends to beef up security around the Roland Park.

Police officials in the Juvenile Services division said Thursday the students arrested can become eligible for a new Court Sanction-Free Intake Adjustment Program the department is sponsoring in each district.

According to Youth Service officer Charles Codd, the program is for any juvenile who is not presently under any supervision by the Juvenile Service office.

He told the AFRO that the youth can only be eligible if the complainant, the youth, the parent and the youth service officer all agree the youth should be in the program.

Codd stated if the youth does go into the program he can be supervised in several ways ranging from general counseling to a community-based job for a period of 90 days. He said at the end of those 90 days the youth is released from supervision with no record with Juvenile Services.

Burgan told the AFRO he does not know whether any of the 15 youths arrested will take part in the program.
