Woodlawn Highlights

...by Marjorie Green

Somehow church ushers alway experience a special warm feeling when they participate in the services at Southern Baptist Church. That's the way it was last Sunday afternoon at the 45th anniversary celebration of the ushers of Southern. Doorkeepers gathered from all parts of the city to join with groups from Pennsylvania and New Jersey in an effort to add spiritual success to the day.

It was a beautiful sight to see the Rev. and Mrs. Nathaniel Higgs along with other clergymen march down the aisle with the ushers in a spirit of love and togetherness. The Usher Board, that numbers close to a hundred men and women, marched like true "Soldiers of the Cross" as they entered the sanctuary to the sound of applause and joyful music, thus setting the tone for the meaningful message shared by their pastor, the Rev. Mr. Nathaniel Higgs.

Mrs. Sadie Knight was the chairperson for the program.

Remember to circle your calendar for Sunday, Oct. 10. That's the day the ushers at Concord Baptist Church celebrate their annual day.

Congratulations to 13 happy Social Security employees. Effective June 20, they were all promoted to GS-9 Social Security Claims Examiner positions in the Coverage Adjudication Section of the Bureau of Data Processing (BDP). Florence Ash, Virginia Finley, Lucille Gibson, Evelyn Gregory, James Harmon and Dorothy Jackson, Jesse Long, Alberta Queen, Hayes Ryan, Barbara Somerville, Maxine Weimer, Marian Wilson and Muriel Young.

I had a pleasant surprise a few days ago when I received a friendly "hello" card from my dear friend, Alma Rucker. The crowded Social Security buildings have kept us separated for several years, but we can never forget the happy years we spent as co-workers and close friends. Alma is working in the downtown 707 Calvert St., building.

Take a moment of time to send "get well" cards to Clarence "Gip" Gibson who is in room 449-A, Sinai Hospital. He is recovering from a recent operation. "Gip" is well known in the Bureau of Data Processing because of the many acts of kindness he has done for his co-workers. His daughter and grandchildren are visiting from California.
