

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 81

Dec Ses 1825.

An act for changing part of the divisional line between Dorchester and Caroline counties.

Passed Feb 17, 1826.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of Mark Noble, of Dorchester county, that he is possessed of a tract of land lying and being in Dorchester and Caroline counties, through which the divisional line of Dorchester and Caroline counties now runs, to the injury of the said Mark Noble; And whereas, it appears that changing the said road will be beneficial to the said Mark Noble, and promote the convenience of the public; Therefore,

Preamble.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Rowings, John Douglass and Hatfield Wright, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them are hereby authorised to change and alter so much of the public road which now divides the counties of Dorchester and Caroline, as passes through the land of the said Mark Noble, in the most convenient manner, and in such direction as shall best promote the convenience of the public, as well as the convenience of the said Mark Noble; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, or a majority of them, to cause so much of the old road and divisional line aforesaid, as may be necessary, to be laid down by a surveyor, and also such alteration as they or a majority of them may make in said land, shewing in what manner the alteration is made, and to return a plot thereof, with the surveyors' certificate thereon, to the levy courts of Dorchester and Caroline counties; and if the levy courts aforesaid, shall approve of the alteration made and certified as aforesaid, the same shall be recorded by the clerks of the respective county courts of Dorchester and Caroline, and thence forward, the said new road shall be held and considered as a part of the public road and divisional line between the said counties of Dorchester and Caroline, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner as the said public road and divisional line has been and is now kept in repair.

Commissioners
—powers & duty—record &c.

2. And be it enacted, That all the expense which shall accrue in making the alteration of the road as aforesaid, and recording the same, shall be paid by the said Mark Noble.

Mark Noble to pay expenses.

CHAPTER 82.

A supplement to an act, for the benefit of Ann Rochester and Frances Rochester.

Passed Feb, 18, 1826.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act, entitled an act, for the benefit of Ann Rochester and Frances Rochester, passed at December session, eighteen hun-

Former act revived.