CHAPTER 123.

Passed April 21, 1853. AN ACT to authorise the removal of causes depending in the Court of Chancery.

Duty of Chancellor. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on the application in writing, by any party to any cause now depending in the court of chancery, setting forth that such party is desirous that the cause may be removed for final determination to some one of the courts of this State having equity jurisdiction, and such notice, either to the solicitor or solicitors of the other party or parties to said cause, or to the party or parties thereto residing in this State, as the Chancellor shall deem reasonable, having first been given, it shall be the duty of the Chancellor, and he is hereby authorised and required to order the removal of such cause to some one of the said courts, and on the passage of any such order of removal, it shall be the duty of the Register in chancery, to transmit to the clerk of the court to which the removal may be ordered, all the papers in the cause, together with a transcript of the docket entries therein, and a statement of the costs of the respective parties theretofore incurred.

To be removed to court most convenient for parties interested. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That whenever applications shall be made by two or more of the parties in any cause, or when it shall appear by the proceedings that two or more of the courts of this State might en-
