Those ladies of pink, green hold gala extravaganza

The town is still talking about the Alpha Kappa Alpha Pink and Green Extravaganza! On June 18, soros of Epsilon Omega Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority did their most beautiful thing again with 800 guests at Martin's West.

Some 200 sorors smartly clad in gorgeous pink and green gowns proudly encircled, clasped hands, swayed, and strongly sang with heart-felt emotions their Alpha Kappa Alpha hymn. Indeed, this was a breath-taking pictorial scene against the background of luminous pink and green fountains and skirted platform.

Omnipresent was the Alpha Kappa Alpha women's color scheme, iniated with pink and green invitations and continued with hostes name cards and decorations uniquely displayed on the walls.

Hostess sorors and sorors from sister chapters wore pink and green wrist corsages created by florist Soror Edwin Burke. Outstanding was the glowing Alpha Kappa Alpha emblem situated on the bandstand where enjoyable music filtered from Carl Thompson and the Rockets of Rhythm.

Out of town guests were from Chicago, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, District of Columbia, Virginia and all sections of Maryland.

Members of the Dance Committee were: Hermis M. Jordan, Chairperson. Bernice S. Hunley and Dolores M. Spriggs, Co-Chairpersons. Mary B. Adams, Doris Levi, Esther C. Bailey, Edwin M. Burke, Ruth S. Daniels, Ruth Davis, Flossie M. Dedmond, Geraldine Dorsey, Luvenia M. Draine, Cicora Ford, Heloise B. Frazier, Bonnie D. Lee, Rowena P. Lewis, Nellie H. Moore, Jewel H. Moseley, Agnes W. Patterson, Ruth B. Turner, Carole A. Westcott, and Mary M. Young. Virginia B. Vauls is the Basileus of Epsilon Omega Chapter.

Speaking of women...

(A look at what black women are doing locally.)

Do you know a dynamic woman — an outstanding community leader, church worker, businesswoman, mother, club woman — who is great in her own right? The AFRO wants to know about her. Send a brief biographical sketch and black and white glossy picture (or we can arrange to take a photo of her) to: Speaking of Women, c-o AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md., 21203. Sorry, pictures can not be returned.

Miss Ann Brown

Miss Ann Brown of Dolphin Street is a young woman who is going places. A recent graduate of the Carver Vocational-Technical High School where she specialized in dressmaking, Miss Brown wears three crowns.

She was elected the 1975-76 Prom Queen of the school, Miss Homecoming Queen of the school and wears the crown of Miss Bicentennial Woman presented her by the Crispus Attucks Recreation Center for her unquie talent in dressmaking.

Very active throughout her community, Miss Brown has participated in the March of Dimes Walk-a-Thon and completed the 25 miles walk each time.

Her interest include gymnastics, baseball, photography and of course, dressmaking.

"My plans for the future are to go into modeling and fashion designing", says Miss Brown.

Women: Where Credit is Due

A widow is faced with the purchase of a major appliance shortly after her husband's death. The store informs her that her charge account has been cancelled because it was in her husband's name.

Has this happened to you? Could it happen to you?

This incident involving a credit problem and many others are illustrated in the newest publication prepared by the Maryland Commission for Women entitled "Women: Where Credit is Due".

Shoshana Cardin, chairwoman for the Commission recently introduced the new brochure at a special luncheon as "a comprehensive collection of material intended to explain a woman's right to credit, the methods for obtaining credit and the actions required to ensure fair credit considerations under the law."

Included in the brochure, which was published for the Commission by the Commerical Credit Corporation, is a special section on separated, divorced, and widowed women; a detailed account of what lenders look for; an explanation of the new credit laws; a glossary of terms; a listing of organizations providing credit assistance; and a series of questions and answers on credit situations.

According to Ms. Cardin, the pamphlet was developed from information obtained from over 1,000 inquiries received by the Commission this past year.

The 24 page booklet is available free of charge through the Maryland Commission for Women, 1100 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., 21202, or call 383-5608.
