Local Club Notes

By Michele L. McRae

Tuscan Lodge

On a recent Saturday evening, Tuscan Lodge No. 90, PHA, held its Annual Ladies Night Dance at the S and R Banquets, 5664 The Alameda. The members of Tuscan Lodge No. 90 gave honors to their ladies by dedicating the evening to them.

The occassion was highlighted with many presentations of gifts given to the wife of the Worshipful Master Leon Jackson (Mamie) for the many contributions to the Lodge during the year.

The officers of Tuscan Lodge are: Leon Jackson, worshipful master; Earlie Towe, senior warden; James Wynn, junior warden; Lloyd Parham, financial secretary; Ronald Brown, treasure; Eddie Harris, senior deacon; Webster Taylor, junior deacon; Leroy Bufford, senior stewart Stanley Williams, Junior stewart; Samuel Hawks, marshall; Wilhelm Williams, chaplin; Gregory Clifford, tyler; Hilbert Byers Jr., corresponding secretary; Wesley S. Booze, recording secretary.

We Wives

The We Wives Club closed out its club year at Ada Weaver's last Tuesday, celebrated their 35th Anniversary with a weekend party and added two new members, Deanna Brown and Iona Collins.

All officers were re-elected and include Agnes Reaves, president; Margery Prout, vice-president; Lillian Bell, recording secretary; Ada Weaver, treasurer; Margaret Hythe, coresponding secretary.

The club made presentations to member Roberta Keets of $140 for the Robert W. Coleman Eyeglass Fund; and $140 to the Louis Harmon Scholarship Fund, Dr. Uthman Rav to send a child to Camp King's Landing for two weeks and $25 to AFRO Clean Block program.

The We Wives will picnic at Highland Beach on July 11 and many will excursion to the Charles Town Race Course with Our Lady of Lourdes Church on July 22.

Links, Inc.

Link Geraldine Desbordes recently hostessed the Baltimore Chapter of Links at the Me-De- So Club on Eutaw Place.

President Cardrienne Griffin gave verbal orchids to Connecting Link Dr. William Watts for having been honored by the Howard University Medical Alumni Association at the graduation exercises. Dr. Watts is a member of the class of 1926.

Also, connecting Link Lionel Desbordes was hononored when he was named to the Alumni Board of Howard University.

Link Louise Perrin was honored by Coppin State College for her years of service to that institution. Catherine Adams presented a gift from the Links at the testimonial held last month. She referred to Mrs. Perrin as "A reliable lady who knows how to get things done." The group agreed with those sentiments and gave "Lou" a resounding round of applause.

The slate of officers for the next program year was presented by Link Frances Hill. The slate was approved unanimously which means the present officers will continue to serve for another year. The officers are Cardrienne Griffin, president; Ada Weaver, corresponding secretary; Vera Hayes, vice president Audrey Norris, financial secretary; Barbara Patterson, recording secretary Etta Phifer, treasurer; and Lydia Mussenden; parliamentarian.

Link Mary Harris, coordinator of the Task Force on Title IX for the Baltimore Public Schools, talked briefly on Title IX, its definition and implementation.

In summary Title IX is for the purpose of elimination of sex discrimination in educational institutions. It is hoped that sex stereotyping will be eliminated based on the premise that men and women both have the right to explore their potential and capabilities without the handicap of having to project the image of traditional male and female roles, especially in the area of employment. Mrs. Harris gave many examples of sexist language in our culture which many will have trouble eliminating in our everyday conversation.

Cocktails and dinner followed the meeting. Mrs. Desbordes had several guests to join the Links for fun and fellowship. Her guests included Connecting Links, Dr. Lionel Desbordes. Dr. William Watts, Dr. Albert LaForest, Dr. William Bruce Russell

Other guests were Mrs. Samuel Owings, Mrs. William Birt, Mrs. Bernard Christmas, Mrs. Eugene Owens, Mrs. Carl Adair, and Mrs. Harold Ramsey.

Links present were Audrey Norris, Robbie Chissell, Frances Hill, Pauline Watts, Mary Pitts, Cardrienne Griffin, Barbara Patterson, Mary Harris and Vera Hayes, Jimmie

RAE C. ROSS
Receives B.A. degree from Adelphi University

Rae Collette Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ross of Green Mountain Circle in Columbia, Md. was recently graduated from Adelphi University, Garden City, Long Island, New York.

Rae earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree with a major in Fine Arts-Dance. She embarked on her dance career as a sophomore at Glenelg High School in Howard County, by participating in the Columbia Dance Company and attending the Peabody Institute.

Later she attended summer workshops at Adelphi during her junior and senior years in high school. She also danced with the Orville Johnson Dance Company dring this same period.

While at Adelphi she studied at the world renowned Martha Graham Studio and Eleo Pomare Dance Company in New York City and at the Skidmore College Summer Dance Workshop in Saratoth, New York.

Currently she is studying at the Morelli School of Ballet and with Martha Graham protege, Mary Hinkson.

Rae plans to pursue graduate studies in Fine Arts at Columbia University, New York in the fall.
