Two Baltimoreans elected to YWCA national board -Woodlawn

RECENT GRAD — Beth Hope Woodland of Columbia, Md. was awarded the bachelor of arts, degree in political science at the 129th Annual Commencement exercises held May 23 at Tufts University, Medford, Mass. During her four years at Tufts, Beth was a member of the residential staff, a member of the President's Committee on Minority and Women's Affairs, a teaching assistant and she served as an intern with the Massachusetts State Senate. She was graduated cum laude. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George F. Woodland.

Gwendolyn Costen Brooks and Blair Danzoil Stambaugh, of Baltimore have been elected to the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the U.S.A. by the 27th Triennial National YWCA Convention in session at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, June 21-26.

They are among 47 women elected to the 90-member policy and governing body of the National Association.

Those elected represent the diversity of ethnic/racial, age and economic as well as religious backgrounds making up the total membership of the Board. Included among the newly and re-elected members are one Asian American, 16 black persons, one native American, two Puerto Ricans and 27 whites persons.

Three of those elected are in the 19-25 age range; five in the 26-35 range; 11 in the 36-45 range; 21 the 46-55 range, and seven are over 55. Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish faiths are represented as are lower, middle and upper economic backgrounds.

Mrs. Brooks is president of the Baltimore YWCA and has been serving as chairperson of the Madison Avenue YWCA Center. She has served as chairperson of the 1976 Convention for her YWCA and is active on the Racial Justice, Public Affairs, Trainee, and Management Workshop committees. She convened a panel for the 1973 Convocation on Racial Justice in Baltimore, and served as a representative to the National Right-to-Read Seminar.

Mrs. Brooks is a former member of the Quality Integrated Education Committee and a former consultant for the Institute on Justice, Youth and the Law. Among her other community actitivies, Mrs. Brooks numbers the steering committee for the evaluation of Forest Park High School, the Consortium of Colleges with Developing Teacher Education Programs, and the United Negro College Fund.

A National Board member since 1970, Mrs. Stambaugh serves on the Racial Justice Task Force, the Executive Management Development Committee, The Recruiting Committee of which she is co-chairperson and the Program Coordinating committee which she chairs.

Mrs. Stambaugh currently is headmistress of The Bryn Mawr School and trustee of Goucher College. She is also a member of the Personnel Committee for the Church of the Redeemer. Active earlier in the Student YWCA, she was on the National Student Administration committee and participated in the Indian and the Asian Seminar.

Re-elected as national president of the YWCA of the U.S.A. is Elizabeth Steel Genne (Mrs. William H.), Montclair, New Jersey, and as headquarters based vice president, Jewel Freeman Graham (Mrs. Paul N.), Yellow Springs, Ohio.

Columbia

Miss U.S. Maryland cleebration dance and fashion show, Saturday, July 17 at at Kahler Hall here in Columbia.

All teens (for teens only) are asked to present their tickets to Mrs. Margaret Smith or Mrs. Elnora Hall before boarding the bus at 8:15 p.m. at Mondawmin Parking lot. Tickets will be collected at the door of Kahler Hall. Attire is semi formal.

There will be plenty of good music and refreshments will be on sale. Guests will meet the the pretty U.S. Talented Teen Maryland, Vanessa Hall and other chairpersons.

After our celebration dance, we will join the other 35 states sponsors and their queens in New York for sight - seeing tours and Broadway shows from July 20-22, then the group will leave for St. Thomas Virgin Islands for four days and then off to St. Croix, V.I. for the national finals on the July 31st.

We would like to bring the national title back to Maryland once again, but as I previously stated, the value of the contest lies not in winning but rather enjoying the opportunity to become acquainted with young people of many different backgrounds and developing a spirit of understanding brotherhood and affection for all people throughout the world.

We will return the first week in August.

EVELYN D. WILKEY, registrar and staff administrator of the Cortez W. Peters Business School of Baltimore will be honored at a Retirement Party on Saturday, July 17 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Hall Sr. in Washington, D.C.

Have a nice day ... every day!
