IN MEMORIAM

COSBY — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, EDITH COSBY, who passed away November 21, 1974.
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
As in the days that used to be,
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more,
In Heaven, that happy life.
Husband, HENRY A. COSBY

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
Loving Wife, MARIE and FAMILY

BIRTHDAY TRIBUTE

COX, SR. — A Birthday in memory of my beloved father, WEBSTER A. COX, SR., on his Birthday November 27th, who passed away October 3, 1973:
No, Daddy, you are not forgotten
Nor will you ever be,
For as long as life and memory last
I will always remember thee.
As though piercing and wounding
Internally was a sword,
My heart still aches and has avoid
While glancing at the calendar
has not yet well healed;
With bringing to mind a father's
Presence no longer felt,
But, inspite and in the midst of my sorrow —
I see Jesus Christ.
One who will always be present, a friend,
And a father; It was an honor to have been your Daughter,
Rest On Until We Meet In The Rapture.
Your Loving Daughter, CAROLANN COX JOHNSON
