About the business of education

By Clarence W. Hunter
AFRO Education Reporter

The spotlight this week is on future state policies regarding admission of out-of-state students to Maryland's public college and universities.

The issue was a major item at the meeting of the State Board for Higher Education. The meeting was held this morning, Friday, at the James Senate Office Building in Annapolis.

REGISTRATION

Late registration for the College of Notre Dame of Maryland's Weekend College program will be accepted through Jan. 14.

Courses meet every third weekend or every Saturday morning from mid-January through mid-April. For further information call 435-0100 ext. 88.

ENTERING SECOND PHASE

The University of Baltimore will enter its second semester of operation as the only upper division institution in the state beginning Jan. 25.

UB was designated an upper-division institution when it joined the state higher education system in 1975. It enrolls only juniors, seniors and graduates and law students.

WORKSHOPS

Loyola College's new Human Growth and Development Center will open a series of weekend seminars to the general public beginning this month.

For further information on any of the workshops to be offered call 730-2200.

TEACHING HAMS

Those interested in acquiring the novice class license for ham radio can attend a credit free seminar this winter at Catonsville Community College.

The 12 week course will cover everything the beginning hams need to know to take the exam. The seminar will begin Jan. 12.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Did you know that the City Council recently passed a bill honoring Bay Brook Elementary School principal Miriam Green for her job as an "educator, administrator and humanitarian"...

Anne Larkins will be the guest speaker at the American Association of University Woman's College Club's meeting Jan 13. Mrs. Larkins is Region 8's management team specialist.

... thirty-five Loyola College seniors have been included in the 1976-77 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

... John G. Moran, director of the office of professional development programs at Loyola College, has been appointed state membership chairman of the American Association of University Administrators.

... the Maryland Council on Economic Education awarded a $7,000 grant to the Loyola College Center for Economic Education.

G.E.D. PROGRAM

The Area of Adult and Community Education for the city schools is offering G.E.D. preparation classes at nine adult centers this spring.

Adults presently not attending a regular day high school are eligible to enroll. For more details call 396-8704.

MINI-COURSE

Seventeen mini-courses are scheduled for the second term by the Evening College of the Johns Hopkins University.

Each course is a concentrated program in a specific area of interest. Registration forms and additional information are available by calling 33-7190.

al information are available by calling 338-7190.

PRACTICAL PARENTING

A short course in practical parenting will be offered this winter on the main campus of Catonsville Community College.

Parents will learn to use positive methods of raising a child. The course starts Jan. 12.

CONTEST

The photography department of the College of Notre Dame announces its fourth annual photography contest for high school juniors and seniors interested in attending the college.

For contest rules and more information contact Sister Linelle LaBonte. College of Notre Dame of Maryland, 4701 N. Charles St., Baltimore Md. 21210.

STUDENTS MAKE MARK

The eighth grade student council of Northern Parkway Junior High School is being recognized not only as a positive force within the school.

The students are being hailed not only for the Thanksgiving canned goods drive but contributing $165 to the Santa Claus Anonymous campaign.

TELEPHONE CENTENNIAL

Finally, Lake Clifton Senior High School will be the site of the Bell Telephone Centennial Exhibit sponsored by Region II and the Baltimore Urban Teacher Education center.

The exhibit will run from Jan. 18 through the 20 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. It will broaden historical prospective and create incentive for new courses in science and language arts division.

MSU gets new MTA bus route

A new route serving Morgan State University, Loyola College, Poly-Western High School and Notre Dame College will begin operation on Jan 17.

The bus will run along Cold Spring Lane between Hillen Road and Dolfield Ave. every half hour between 7 a.m. and 9 a.m. and between 3 p.m. and 5 p.m. This will be Route No. 33. Going west, the sign on the bus will read "Belvedere and Groveland." On the eastward run it will read "Morgan State University."

This much needed bus route has been instigated by the MTA in response to efforts by Sen. Clarence W. Blount and Stuart Brooks, assistant to the president of Morgan State University, to provide crosstown transportation for students attending these schools.

Use of this bus can reduce parking problems and dependency on the automobile for many. It can even make it possible for some who do not have automobiles to acquire a college education.

Benefit claims office opens

Official opening and dedication of the new Employment Security Administration office of the Maryland Department of Human Resources at 7800 Eastern Boulevard and Rolling Mill Road was held this morning Friday, Jan. 7, at 11.

Among the State and Federal officials expected to attend are: Richard A. Batterton, secretary for the Maryland Department of Human Resources, Terrell Whitsitt, regional administrator for the Department of Labor, The Honorable Clarence D. Long, United States Congressman, and James N. Phillips, executive director of the Employment Security

The new office is a full service office which includes the unemployment insurance program, a variety of job services, and the Work Incentive Program (WIN). The business hours of operation are from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Claimants who reside in the following zip code areas may report directly to the new office: 21205, 21206, 21219, 21220, 21221, 21222, 21224 and 21237. Claimants with written inquires may write directly to Box 9917, Baltimore, Maryland 21224 or call 288-9181, 238-9182, or 238-9183.

Man found hanged in cell

Byron Johnson, 24, of the 700 block Payson St., reportedly hanged himself in his cell at the Central District lockup on Wednesday.

Police report Johnson used the lace from his boots to hang himself from the cell bars, he was arrested Wednesday and charged with assault with intent to murder.

Johnson was arrested in his home and had been in his cell three hours awaiting a bail hearing.

Foster Open House

The Harrisons (Gladys) Foster held open house at their Belvieu Avenue home last week.

Gladys greeted her guests in flowing black chiffon banded in silver.

About were the Julian Bennett Srs.; the Fred Baileys, Nathaniel Holldays, the William Fondvines, the Simpson Fantts, the Richard Grays, the James E. Myers, the Colin Shepherds, the Frazier Brices.

Michael Cates, the Wilford Griffins, Miss Nellie Ming, the Edward Tildons, the Bernard Lacewells, the Yance Rosses, the Ernest Lees, the Pinkney Howells, Joseph Anthony, Nathan Watts, Earl Washington, Harrison Taylor, Joyce Scoby, Walter and Michelle Amprey, the James E. Coopers, Dick Graff.

Arenda Players Perform

The Emergency Committee for Paul L. Chester is sponsoring an evening at the Arena Playhouse on Sunday, Jan. 9. The committee will present the Arena Players in "None To Call Him Father" by playwright, Melvin DeGree.

The play concerns Nat Turner and is being presented for the first time by a regular theatre group.

Co-chairpersons of the affair are: Philathea Hall and Jean Gregory who urge all citizens to attend. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m.

For tickets call: 523-4826, 358-9800 or 947-0336.

Wood Christening

Faith Baptist Church will be the Sunday afternoon (Jan. 9) setting for the christening services for three-month-old, Philip Hilliard Wood Jr., born Oct. 7.

The baby boy was delivered by his own father after mother had been sent home from the hospital three or four times because according to doctors 'she was not ready.'

Young Philip is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip (Kate) Wood Sr. of E. Northern Parkway.

Lambda Kappa Mu

Members of the Iota Chapter, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority under the chairmanship of Dorothy Stone met at the home of Naomi Johnson to make final plans for their Annual Founders' Day Luncheon to be held at Martin's West on Saturday, January 22, noon. The guest speaker will be Oprah Winirey of WJZ-TV station.

At the home of Soror Louise Turks under the leadership of Imogene Douglas other members of Iota Chapter met to begin planning for the "Red, White and Blue Dinner Dance" to be held at the LaFountaine Rouge.

Sorors of Iota are impatiently waiting to meet and greet old and new friends at these two activities.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

Betty and Wilfred Shelton of Washington Avenue, Glen Burnie, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday, Jan. 16.

"A Celebration of Love" is what the affair will be entitled when the couple renews wedding vows in services at Enon Baptist Church, Edmondson and Schroeder Street in 4 p.m. services.

Reception activities will follow in the Arthur J. Payne Christian Center.

Jack and Jill of America

In mid-November, the 3, 4, 5 and 6-year-old members of Jack and Jill's Baltimore City Chapter met at the home of Maxine J. Wood to begin a service project.

The service project was Christmas gift making for senior citizens.

Approximately 60 individual gift packages were made for senior citizens. These included colognes, powders, deodorants, cosmetics, combs, brushes, writing papers and pens, tissues, rain scarves and lotions. Each gift package was wrapped in either a pastel terry washcloth (for the women) or placed in a pair of socks (for the men).

On Wednesday, December 27, Mrs. Maxine Wood and Mrs. Anastasia Benton accompanied their children: Melissa and Monica Wood and James Benton to deliver the gift items to the residents of the N. M. Carroll Home and the Maryland Baptist Home for the Aged. The children, serving as representatives for their age groups personally gave a gift to each of the senior citizens. This activity was held to emphasize the need for the children to expand their visions of Christmas by giving to the "young at heart."

Roosevelt School brightens holiday

Keeping in mind that Christmas is a time for sharing and the thought that "not what we give but what we share," the students, faculty, staff and parents of F. D. Roosevelt School No. 18 joined together in brightening the holiday season for those who are less fortunate, the elderly, and the sick and shut-ins.

Food baskets of canned goods were collected from each class and these were supplemented with a ham or turkey supplied by the PTA and then distributed to those less fortunate in the community by president, Mr. Riddick.

The Junior Red Cross of School 18, sponsored a drive to collect articles for the Carver Nursing Home on Pennsylvania Avenue. The faculty, principal, assistant teachers, and entire staff contributed bags of goodies, cosmetics, clothing and other little surprises that would go to brighten the lives of these residents.

The bags were delivered to the home by the Junior Red Cross sponsors, Jewel Meyers and Joyce Owens along with two members of the Junior Red Cross, Darrin Dorsey and Kim Davis.

The students of the school also filled Christmas stockings supplied by the Junior Red Cross members for the little patients at Children's Hospital on Greenspring Drive. These were carried to the hospital by members of the Junior Red Cross and the sponsors.

The entire second grade class and their teacher, Mrs. Dorothy James, made tray favors for the patients of the pediatrics ward of Provident Hospital and carried them to the hospital.

The very active F. D. Roosevelt School Parents Club, of which Mrs. Marlene Parks is in charge sponsored a money raising drive in which a king and queen were crowned for raising the highest amount of money. This money will go to help buy many needed articles for the school.

Music teacher, Mrs. Mary Johnson and the school chorus presented a very excellent Christmas program, entitled "Christmas Around the World," in which all classes took part.

The school is headed by Mrs. Daisy Josey, principal and Alma Stewart and Dorothy Stone, senior teachers.

Speaking of women...

(A look at what black women are doing locally.)

The Rev. Mrs. Anne Smith is the assistant pastor to the Rev. Mrs. Gladys Hairston at the Bible Revival Deliverance Church of the Apostolic Faith located at 1400 McCulloh St. This young woman has dedicated her life to the service of the Christian.

Reared in a religious family by her grandparents the late Rev. and Mrs. Percy C. Young of Lancaster County, Va., her grandfather pastored three churches in Virginia and one in Baltimore City, Faith Baptist Church located at Bond and Ashland Avenues.

Educated in Lancaster County Public Schools, her childhood was not an easy one, between working on the family farm and going to school. At the age of 16 she moved to New York with the permission of her grandparents to live with her mother, Mrs. Iantha Richardson.

Rev. Mrs. Annie Smith

While living in New York the young woman began to experience life. For life in the big city of New York was much different than life on the farm. It was at this time that she felt more a need for God. By the time she reached her seventeen birthday she experienced her conversion.

That same year she became a member at the Refuge Temple Church Apostolic Faith pastored by Bishop William Bonner in Harlem, New York. There she worked faithfully until she departed to come to Baltimore. Upon arriving in Baltimore, Rev. Smith had to choose a new church home. She later began to worship at the Redeem Church of Christ Apostolic Faith pastored by Elder Clarence Weston.

While attending church services there she met Evangelist Gladys Burton Hairston. She went along with Evangelist Hairston to assist her in the job of winning lost souls for Christ, after which the young woman accepted her call into the ministry.

On Oct. 29, 1972 the two women opened the doors to the Bible Revival Center. Rev. Mrs. Hairston was installed as pastor and Evangelist Smith was installed as assistant pastor. For the past four years Rev. Mrs. Smith has worked faithfully beside her pastor.

In addition to her duties as assistant pastor, Rev. Smith serves as general secretary, business manager, Sunday school teacher, church counselor, and advisor.

Rev. Mrs. Smith is the wife of the Rev. Warrington Smith. They are the parents of two sons, Leon and Darryl.

Do you have a dynamic woman — an outstanding community leader, church worker, businesswoman, mother, club woman — who is great in her own right? The AFRO wants to know about her. Send a brief biographical sketch and black and white glossy picture (or we can arrange to take a photo of her) to: Speaking of Women, c-o AFRO-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md., 21203. Sorry, pictures can not be returned.

Everybody's invited to go 'on the hill' for Inauguration gala

Inaugural Day, Jan. 20, will find activities of various sorts being held in the nation's capital.

Many of those activities will be by-invitation-only, black-tie, social events, known as balls or receptions. Only a selected few will have their names included on the guests lists. For many, even if theirs were, they would not be able to afford the exorbitant ticket prices, expensive formal wear and transportation and hotel accomodations necessary to attend the galas.

It was because of some of the reasons already stated that a Special Maryland Presidential Inaugural Reception Committee was formed where Marylanders and their guests might be able to enjoy the inauguration festivities "on the hill," at minimal cost and guaranteed admittance.

Erma D. Perry, chairperson for the special committee, says, "The inauguration of the 39th President of the United States is indeed an occasion for all America to celebrate.

"With the significant role that Marylanders had in making this election happen, as well as the inherent political, social and historical implications of the Carter election, Jan. 20 will be a day long remembered by all of us," she adds.

The Maryland organization has received special permission to hold the reception on Jan. 20 from the Carter ad-
