CIVIL RIGHTS PROTECTOR—Drew Days 3rd (shown in his office), a 35-year-old NAACP lawyer from New York, is the first black ever nominated to head the Civil Rights Division of the Justice Department. Days, nominated by President Carter Wednesday, said in an interview afterwards that he believed "his mandate" was to protect the civil rights of all American people.

City Hall tours are daily now

Tours of Baltimore's renovated and restored City Hall are being conducted each weekday at 10 a.m. by members of the Women's Civic League, in cooperation with the Mayor's Office of Volunteer Services, Mayor Schaefer said this week.

"This historic building belongs to the people of Baltimore, who supported and approved the bond issue which made possible the restoration and renovation work. I want to thank the Women's Civic League for offering their services, and I invite everyone to tour the building to see the exciting changes that have taken place," he added.

Reservations for the tour can be made by calling 396-1151.

The Women's Civic League will also maintain an Information Center in City Hall. The center will provide general information about Baltimore as well as specific information on neighborhood and other tours available.

The Civic League is also restoring Number 9 Front St., former home of Mayor Thoroughgood Smith, next to the Shot Tower.

AFRO Subway series!

AFRO digs into the biggest story in town!

Elizabeth M. Oliver

When completed in 1982, the $721 million Rapid Transit System will extend from Charles Center to Reisterstown Plaza near the Baltimore County line.

The near $800 million "goldmine" is beginning to pour cash into Baltimore right now. This is more public works money than ever before in Baltimore's history.

What's in it for black citizens, black contractors, the jobless, for YOU?

In coming editions, AFRO city editor Elizabeth M. Oliver's special four-part series will open the whole thing up and show you.

The near $800 million "gold mine" is beginning now, may or may not go to our jobless and needy citizens.

2. Why there's not one training center ready to prepare minority workers.

Who are the "watch dogs" working now to see that we get our fair share of the pie?

You're going to know when you read The AFRO.

$25,000 bail set pending March 14 bank robbery trial

Wayland Willard Talley, 26, 2102 Poplar Grove S., was arrested Feb. 3 at his residence by FBI agents and charged with the Jan. 25 robbery of Loyola Federal Savings and Loan Asso., 331 N. Howard St.

FBI authorities report a photograph of a man taken by bank cameras aided in identification of a suspect.

FBI records show a suspect obtained bank money through the use of a demand note which stated he had a gun.

Following the incident, the Maryland Association for Bank Security offered a reward of up to $2,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction.

Tally was arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Paul M. Rosenberg. A bail of $25,000 was set pending trial on March 14.
