Claims raid caused wife's miscarriage

By PAM WIDGEON

A minister who had his house invaded by police and his pregnant wife afterward suffered a miscarriage is suing the Police Department, Gov. Marvin Mandel, Mayor William Schaefer and the City Council for $7 million.

Rev. William E. Johnson, pastor of Union Baptist Church in Turner Station and his wife, Mrs. Delores Brooks Johnson, filed their complaint through their attorneys Elijah E. Cummings and Kenneth L. Johnson Feb. 24 in the Court of Common Pleas.

The suit alleges that on October 5, 1976 around 3

Mandel pal says he's not part of can factory deal

Irv Kovens, perhaps Gov. Marvin Mandel's closest adviser, called the AFRO from Florida two times on Wednesday to emphatically deny that he is in any way connected with the east side Continental Can factory prison site deal.

This real estate transaction has Baltimoreans, black and white in the city's Orangeville section boiling mad.

Residents who crowded the State Assembly last Saturday charged that the governor is ramming an unwanted penal facility down the community's throat.

They want the prison someplace else and pointedly told legislators that Morton Sarubin, principal owner of the Continental Can property, is a friend of Mr. Kovens who in turn is the governor's closest crony.

Said a perturbed Kovens to the AFRO: "I have absolutely nothing to do with that building."

"I have never discussed that building with him nor he with me. And as far as I am concerned I don't know whether he has any partners in the thing or not but I can tell you I am not associated and never have been associated in anything in that building."

Mr. Kovens said he would be glad to show his check book or tax returns

Howard hits judicial scheme as threat to blacks, whites

By Moses J. Newson

ANNAPOLIS — Supreme Bench Judge Joseph C. Howard, bolstered by a supportive resolution from the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, has urged the General Assembly to amend a judicial reform proposal to prevent its being exposed as "yet another manipulative scheme."

City blacks, poor whites and lawyers, as well as judicial circuits outside Baltimore, face new burdens — some of them racial — in seeking or dispensing justice, unless Senate Bill 355 and House Bill 697 are amended, Judge Howard warned.

Testifying Thursday afternoon before the Senate Judicial Proceedings Committee, Judge Howard said that without the amendments he offered the Mandel Administration — sponsored reform " is against the interest of the residents of Baltimore City."

"Not readily apparent" problems the proposed constitutional amendments pose as threats include these "harmful effects" for city residents, the judge said:

(1) . . . "The impact of the automatic right of removal upon litigation filed in Baltimore City. . . ."

(2) . . . "The right of all citizens to participate in the administration of the city's highest court system."

Judge Howard warned that should the court consolidation measure gain approval as written, "thousands of litigants in Baltimore City might be required to travel to one of the 23 counties for trial, by the mere filing of a paper suggesting that a fair trial is unobtainable in this municipality."

"The extra costs imposed

DIMINUTIVE PROFESSOR WAYLAID BY 6 FT. 200 lb. ASSAILANT

School Commissioner Wayman Scott claims Valentine day massacre

Dr. Wayman Eugene Scott, 52, member of the Baltimore City School Board, has obtained an arrest warrant for Charles Monroe Fant, 30, 407-A Clover St., Aberdeen, Md.

The arrest data filed by Aberdeen Police Department's Officer Nick Edwards quotes Dr. Scott, a physicist in Ballistics Research at Aberdeen Proving Ground, as reporting Fant "did unlawfuly make an assault on me and did then and there beat and bruise me and ill treat me."

In the document on file in the District Court of Maryland for Aberdeen, (No. 93; No. 9469) Dr. Scott set the date of the "massacre" as Valentine Day, Feb. 14.

Scott who lists his address as 4715 Charlton Rd., Baltimore, told police that the incident occurred at the Hi Fi Gas Station on Route 40, Aberdeen.

Police records state that the accused man who is six feet tall and weighs 200 pounds, was arrested at 11:05 a.m., Feb. 16, two days after the incident and released on his own recognizance.

Commissioner Cornelius Smith has set Fant's preliminary hearing for 10:30 a.m., March 3 in the Aberdeen District Court.

The court is located in the Equitable Trust Building, third floor, Main St., in Aberdeen.

Court records show Commissioner Donald Brackett signed the Feb. 14 arrest warrant which technically charges Fant with "assault and battery."

When the AFRO arrived at the Harford Gate at Aberdeen Proving Ground, MP Kurtz reached Dr. Scott by phone, Feb. 24, 2:25 p.m.

When Dr. Scott was asked if the AFRO could speak with him in his offices, he replied that he was on duty and would be off at 3 p.m.

Upon giving the AFRO his Charlton Rd., Baltimore, home phone number, he said he would be available to talk at 7 p.m. However, after repeated dialing of the number from 7 p.m. on, the AFRO received no answer.

SENATOR BLOUNT WILL DO "HIS DAMNDEST"

Town manager sees no UMES shutdown

By Clarence W. Hunter
AFRO Staff Writer

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — This city's town manager says he can now breathe a sigh of relief with the threat of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) closing behind him.

"I want to make it clear," said manager George Volnick, "that the school will not close. As far as I'm concerned the incident is closed," continued Volnick. "The media gave us some bad advertising with the news that the school was closing. It almost drove prospective businesses away."

Volnick was one of the staunch supporters of UMES at the Joint Subcommittee on Education and Resources hearing held Feb. 16 in Annapolis.

At that hearing, a budget analyst's report recommended that because of declining enrollment and the high operating costs of the 896-student university, it should be closed.

This suggestion sparked heavy bi-racial support for UMES from persons living in the Eastern Shore area.

Volnick feels that the citizens won their battle. He said all he is going to consider now is bringing potential businessmen to his town.

"The school has a big economic impact on the community," he said. "We have a good two-way relationship."

Although Volnick feels that the situation is closed
