Northwest YMCA has membe rs campaign

The Northwest Branch YMCA, 3306 Park Circle, recently announced the kick-off of its annual Sustaining Membership Campaign. The campaign, under the direction of Michael Jay Brown, has a goal of $5,000.

The purpose of the campaign is to raise funds to help underwrite the cost of youth programming in order to carry on quality program at a reasonable rate.

Brown, of the Ebony Collective Public Relations Agency, said, "The West Baltimore community has accepted our cause with open arms. It appears that the community recognizes the impact of our services on our youth. We have the endorsements of such organizations as the Masonic Temple F and AM, Monumental Bar Association and era churches."

The campaign will continue through March. For further information, contact M. Jay Brown at 367-3300.
