

13. It shall be the duty of said boards of supervisors to appoint the place of registration and also the polling place in each precinct of their county or city and to cause the same to be fitted up, warmed, lighted and cleaned. The places for registration and polling shall in all cases be upon the ground floor of a building, the entrance to which is from the highway or from a public street at least forty feet wide if in the City of Baltimore and at least twenty-five feet wide if in the counties, in a room facing on said street or highway and shall be as near the center of the voting population of the precinct and as convenient to the greatest number of voters as is practicable, and in no case shall a registration or election be held in any building, or part of the building, used or occupied as a saloon, dram-shop, poolroom, billiard hall or bowling alley, or communicating therewith by doors or hallways. If no suitable place is found the supervisors shall provide one. Provided, however, that, after the year 1940, no places of registration shall be provided in the respective precincts of Baltimore City, but all the work of registration, transfers, etc., shall be conducted in the office of the Board of Supervisors of Elections of said City.

15. Said Boards of Supervisors shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration, and of revision thereof, and of elections in each precinct of such county or city, by handbills set up in the most public places in such precinct, and also in the counties, by advertisements in two newspapers (one of which newspapers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of said supervisors) of general circulation therein, except in Howard County, where the Supervisors of Elections may publish in one newspaper the notice above required, and in the City of Baltimore, by advertisement in all the daily newspapers which will publish the same at their current rate of advertising. And the Sheriff of Baltimore City and of each county shall no longer publish such notices of election, but in Howard County the Sheriff shall set up the handbills hereinbefore referred to, which handbills the Board of Supervisors shall have made up and give to the Sheriff for the purpose of setting them up. Said Board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections, and they shall have charge of and make provision for all elections, general, special, local, municipal, State and county, and for all others of every description, to be held in such city or county, or any part thereof, at any time; all questions shall be decided by a majority of the Board, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Article; provided, however, that in any incorporated
