

as a place of reform and not of punishment, may order said minor so convicted to be removed to and confined in the said Cheltenham School for Boys.

611-H. The Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys shall have power in their discretion to place the boys committed to their care during the minority of such boys at such employment and cause them to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge as may be suited to their years and capacity, and said Board of Managers shall have power in their discretion to bind out the boys committed to their care with the consent of such boy, as apprentices during their minority to such person or persons whether in or out of this State, and to learn such proper trades or employment as in the judgment of said Board of Managers will be most conducive to the reformation and future benefit and advantage of such boys.

611-I. Every person who shall wilfully aid or abet any minor in escaping from the Cheltenham School for Boys, or from any person or persons to whose care and custody any minors may have been lawfully bound by said Cheltenham School for Boys, shall on conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not more than sixty days.

611-J. For each colored male minor committed to the care and training of the Cheltenham School for Boys from the City of Baltimore or any one of the counties in the State, the said City or County, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury, the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00), per annum, for the care and training of such colored male minors and the remaining amount required for the care and training of such colored male minor shall be paid from the Treasury of the State, and the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury the sum of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, per annum, for each colored male minor, paroled and under the control of the Cheltenham School for Boys supervising said colored male minors. The expense for care, training and supervision of all male minors in the Cheltenham School for Boys and on parole and under its control shall be a charge upon each county and City of Baltimore, committing such colored male minor or minors to the Cheltenham School for Boys, as hereinafter specified. It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys to furnish to the County Treasurer and to the Comptroller of the City of Baltimore having colored male minors committed to the Cheltenham School for Boys a quarterly statement giving the number of colored male minors and the name of each colored male minor from and
