Spinster wills Richmond church $100,000

Richmond's First African Baptist Church is slated to receive about $100,000 from a former member of the church who died last year at the age of 55, the AFRO learned this week.

Miss Emmett M. Crump of 2501 The Terrace specified in her probate in Richmond Circuit Court May 3, 1976 that the church was to receive the bulk of her estate as a memorial for her and her sister, Miss Martha R. Crump, who died in 1956.

The church has already received about $67,000 in stocks and bonds and has accepted ownership of Miss Crump's home, according to Roland D. Ealey, the church's lawyer and member of the church's board of trustees.

Robert N. Pollard Jr., executor of Miss Crump's estate, said the total going to the church would be about $100,000 after taxes were paid and other beneficiaries received bequests.

According to court records, Miss Crump left an estate valued at $148,613, including $72,500 in securities, $30,800 in U.S. Savings Bonds and her home appraised at $22,000.

Pollard said Miss Crump was blind and nearly deaf when she died last April 24. Her sister, who had been a school teacher here, had left her entire estate to Miss Emmett Crump.

Miss Crump's will specified that one-thirs of the church's money was for general uses, one-third for the Sunday school, and one-third for "Poor Saints of the church."

Her will said the bequest "acknowledges the love for First African Baptist Church of my sister, Martha R. Crump and myself, and is made as a memorial for her and me."

Ealey said the church did not plan to sell the stocks or the house "in the immediate future" and that no plans had been made for the use of the money.

The church of 2700 Hanes Ave. has a membership of about 700, according to the pastor, the Rev. Don J. Hayes.

Library gives french fries for books

The Enoch Pratt Free Library is about to discover whether Baltimoreans like French fries.

McDonald's restaurant chain has offered the library a supply of coupons to be given out in exchange for any Pratt library books due March 1, 1977, or earlier, which are returned to the central library before May 17.

The coupons will entitle the patron to free French fries from either the Howard and Fayette St. or the Baltimore and Light St. restaurants.

The borrower (or a friend or relative) must return the books in person to the central circulation desk; volumes returned to the book drop boxes will not count.

One coupon will be handed out for each book returned, so if a patron returns ten books he will receive ten coupons.

The terms of the offer limits the program to the central library, at least for the present. There is some hope that, if the central experiment is successful, branches may be included in the future.

Social workers hold meeting

Dr. Andrew Billingsley, president of Morgan State University, will speak to the Maryland Chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW) on Tuesday, April 26th on the topic "New Perspective on the Black Family." The meeting will begin at 7:00 at the College of Notre Dame, Charles Street and Homewood Avenue.

Dr. Billinsley is a social worker and sociologist as well as an outstanding academic administrator. His professional research and writing has been concentrated in the field of black family life.

The meeting has been planned as a special celebration and recognition of the NASW Social Worker of the Year and the Public Citizen of the Year. These are annual awards from the organization to outstanding professional and lay leaders.

The Social Worker of the Year is Mabel Creighton who recently retired as Director of Social Services at the Eastern Shore Hospital Center in Cambridge, Maryland.

'Pride of Baltimore' commissioned May 1

Mayor William Donald Schaefer announced the Baltimore Clipper, Pride of Baltimore, will be officially commissioned at 2:00 p.m., Sunday, May 1, during ceremonies at the Inner Harbor.

In a simultaneous announcement, Mayor Schaefer and the Mayors of Norfolk, Philadelphia, New York and New London, Conn. announced their cities' participation in the East Coast Harbor Festival, scheduled for June 17 to July 10.

Baltimore's participation in the program will be called the Baltimore Maritime Heritage Festival and will run from June 2' to26.

During commissioning ceremonies, the Pride of Baltimore will be officially transferred from the builder, the International Historic Watercraft Society, to its owner, the City of Baltimore.

Formal command of the ship will be given to its captain, Melbourne Smith. The Pride of Baltimore was christened and launchri on February 27.

The commissioning ceremonies will feature the reading of the ship's orders, the presentation of the officers and crew, and the hoisting of the ensign, jack and ceremonial commissioning pennant.

Schaefer will make the first log entry during the commissioning. Baltimoreans present will have the opportunity to sign one of ten official log books. Entertainment, starting at 1:30 p.m., will be provided by the U.S. Navy Ceremonial Band, and Congress's Own Regiment.

The East Coast Harbor Festival will feature a visit to each of the participating cities by sail training vessels nd replicas of historic ships from uo and down the East Coast. The event will also include two American Sail Training Association (ASTA) sanctioned races in which it is expected the Pride of Baltimore will participate.

"Through this program, the sponsors in each city hope to bring to residents of the East Coast a greater understanding of sail training. America's sailing heritage and a first-hand look at the many historic ships that populate the respective areas," Schaefer said.

Schaefer stressed the importance of the Baltimore Maritime Heritage Festival not only because of its role in the East Coast Harbor Festival, but because it will celebrate the return of the Pride of Baltimore from her maiden voyage.

The Baltimore festival, under the direction of Baltimore Operation Sail, Ltd., the same group that produced Baltimore's successful Operation Sail program last year, will display ships which are spectacular because of their design, function (i.e. sail training) or historic significance.

In addition to the Pride of Baltimore and other ships, the Baltimore Maritime Heritage Festival will also feature special concerts, sporting events, a crab feast and other exciting activities for the officers, crew and public.

IN MEMORIAM

BUTLER — In loving memory of our dear mother ROSA L. BUTLER, who passed away April 24, 1961:
Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our mother rests in heavenly peace . . .
God grant some day we'll meet her there.
Loving Children:
WILLIAM FOWLER & ROSA F. BRIGHT
Daughter-in-law,
ALVERTA S. FOWLER

CHICHESTER and MOODY — A Tribute to the memory of dear husband, JOSEPH H. CHICHESTER, who passed April 21, 1970 and my mother, MRS. ALICE J. MOODY, who passed May 16, 1954:
When one you care for has departed
And you sit alone and broken hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
of true companionship, I know,
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything,
The grave its victory, death its sting.
I, who loved you, sadly miss you,
I, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away,
You are with me every day.
Devoted Wife and Daughter
MRS. CECELIA J. CHICHESTER

EVANS — In memory of our loved one WILLIAM T. (JERRY) EVANS, who fell asleep on April 24, 1975:
We still miss you Jerry, the hurt is deep,
Time alone, does not take away sorrow
But as God's eternity, children we know we Must one day shed time and be caught up with The Lord Jesus.
One day, — when we have been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing His praise,
Since when we first begun,
Our wee.ing endures for the night but we look,
To the morning — yes to the morning.
LOVING FAMILY

HENSON — A Tribute of love to the memory of our loved one LAURA HENSON, who passed away April 22, 1975:
Loving memories never die
As years roll on and days pass by
In our hearts a memory is kept
Of one we loved and will never forget
Love Always, KATHLEEN & ALFRED HINTON

MINTER — In loving memory of our dear mother, GOLDIE A. MINTER, who passed away April 22, 1971:
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses and trees,
Birds and starlight and loyal friends
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare . . .
A mother as dear as you.
YOUR DEVOTED CHILDREN.

RAWLING — In loving memory of our dear loved one JOSEPH RAWLING, who passed away April 23, 1974:
Peaceful be thy rest, dear brother
It is sweet to breathe thy name
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Loving Sisters,
ELIZABETH DAVIS & LOVENIA, ALLEN, NIECES, NEPHEWS, & GREAT NEPHEWS

STEWART — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, MARIE K. STEWART, who passed away April 23, 1976:
Our hearts are heavy today;
The wonderful memories you left behind,
There isn't a time that goes by we do not speak your name.
Mother, we miss you dearly, the voice we loved is still.
No one can fill your vacant chair, our loss grows deeper each day.
But in memory you are with us, as always before.
Devoted Daughter, ANITA STEWART
Brother CHARLES H. KEENE, GRAND-CHILDREN and NIECES
