Mr. Fro starts contest with four winners

Mr. Fro donned his Sherlock Holmes hat late Wednesday afternoon, snapped the brim smartly and took to the streets of Baltimore with his capable assistants determined to give away some money.

With that Mr. Fro with Dough contest the AFRO has been promising for two weeks is underway. Mr. Fro decided to go into the community every Wednesday and Saturday to see if residents have the AFRO so they can win $10 and a chance at the $100 prize in the AFRO numbers game.

Mr. Fro's first stop was in the 2600 block W. Lanvale St. Darryl Kelly was delivering papers and Zina Pullen was playing in her yard. Both agreed to pick the first three lucky persons of the contest.

But alas, the first two were not home and the third, Armstead Carter of 2427 Lanvale, did not have an AFRO.

So Mr. Fro kept on truckin.'

He stopped next in the 1000 block Ellamont. He drew a blank. However, Mrs. Martha Datsun of 1009 Ellamont St. was standing by her car holding last Friday's AFRO.

"But do you have Tuesday's AFRO?" Mr. Fro asked.

"Of course I do," she declared and sent her daughter in her house to get it.

When she came back with Tuesday's edition, Mrs. Datsun said, "I told you I had the AFRO."

So even though her house was not picked Mrs. Datsun won $10 but missed the chance at the $100.

Mr. Fro pressed on and was successful in the 3100 block Westmont where Miss Fleeta Blake of 3113 Westmont St., an 11th grader at Douglass High School just happened to be outside with Tuesday's AFRO when her house was called.

When her mother, Mrs. Alma Blacke drove up Miss Blake just missed winning $100. Being a faithful AFRO reader for five years paid off for Mrs. Blake.

Over in the 3300 block Mondawmin Ave., Olin Pinckney of 3336 Mondawmin, an employe for the telephone company, won $10 after searching for his paper for almost 10 minutes. Earlier Miss Angie Dickerson of 3306 Mondawmin missed out on $10 because she was locked out of the house.

Back at his office, Mr. Fro called Mrs. Louise Abraham of 2046 E. Fayette St. who said, "Yes I have the Tuesday AFRO. Just wait until I run upstairs."

She answered the questions and won $10 and a chance at the $100 when she plays the numbers game.

Mrs. Alice Fitzgerald of 1517 Chase St. had given her AFRO to a friend and missed winning while Mrs. Rose Vinson at 1907 Chase St. said she buys the paper every week except this past Tuesday.

It had been a good day for Mr. Fro and he knew he would have an even better one Saturday.

Mount Lebanon Baptist observes anniversary

On the eve of the celebration of the Fifty-third anniversary of Mount Lebanon Baptist Church, 2330 Reisterstown Rd. and the thirteenth anniversary of their pastor, Rev. Dr. Olin P. Moyd, members took out time to honor their other pastor, Rev. Dr. Olin Moyd, for 33 years of service to the church.

During the beautiful celebration held at St. Pius Roman Catholic Church Hall, Mrs. Turner, a widow for many years, was lauded for her success in rearing eight children and guiding them through their college career.

The pastor applauded Mrs. Lena Diggs, Mrs. Lorraine Boykin and the committee for organizing the successful affair, but he was quick to point out "this was just a pause to say 'thank you' to Hazel Turner; in no way does it signal her retirement."

The Mount Lebanon Baptist Church was founded by the late Rev. Hiram E. Smith in a 10x10 room in South Baltimore in 1924. The first person to be Baptized by the church was Mrs. Marie Spedden who is the only surviving member of the original congregation. "Although age has slowed her pace," says Dr. Moyd, "we can expect to see her in church regularly, and most certainly she will be here on our 53rd Anniversary Sunday," May 22, 1977!.

The late Rev. Hiram E. Smith led the contregation for 40 years, through the depression and moving to several locations and to its present home in 1952.

From "day one," under the leadership of its founder, the church has always had a this-worldly concern as well as an other-worldly outlook. Dr. Moyd says "We are concerned about the whole person, that is, about the quality of existence here and now as well as the state of the soul in the hereafter.

"As a consequence of this concern, which we believe is founded and grounded in the teachings and ministry of Jesus Christ, we find ourselves constantly working for human development and human rights."

As the members of Mt. Lebanon congregation celebrate their 53rd year, they are looking forward to the construction of their new church facilities in the 2800 Block of Reisterstown Road. The Anniversary sermon will be delivered by Rev. Matthew Silver, first vice president of United Baptist Missionary Convention of Maryland and pastor of Concord Baptist Church.

A major event during the 11:00 a.m. Anniversary service will be the honoring of three persons for their public relations services to the community. They are Ms. Pam Widgon, AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers; Ms. Pauline Wells Lewis, WSID Radio and Ms. Mary Clayburn, WWIN Radio.

Last year's honorees were Mr. James I. Gustus, G / M Oil Co.; J.D. Howard, photographer and Clarence Smith, Crip Plaist. Dr. Moyd points out that the church must not be self-centered; it must look out beyond its walls and encourage those who serve God through their services to the community.
