

Journal Clerk—Wm. G. Puruell.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Eugene Gooding.

Postmaster—Abraham Cole.

Doorkeeper—George W. H. Ruark.

Assistant Doorkeeper—Lawrence Mabury.

Committee Clerks—J. W. Lowe.

“ “ J. Frank Morrison.

“ “ John McCulloh.

“ “ Stephen Archer, of John.

“ “ Sol. E. Smith.

Folders—Jesse F. Gardner.

“ R. E. Bivens.

“ Wm. Heinebaugh.

Page—Charles Harman.

And that the said officers shall receive the same compensation as the officers of the Session of 1874, except the Sergeant-at-Arms, who shall receive the sum of five dollars per day.

Mr. Steiner called for the yeas and nays upon the adoption of that part of the above order which appoints five Committee Clerks.

Which was adopted by yeas and nays as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. President,	Joyce,
Aydelotte,	Knight,
Brewer,	Lee,
Cooper,	Lloyd,
Dennis,	McCulloh,
Ford,	Phelps,
Getty,	Stevens,
Gorman,	Suit,
Hepbron,	Walsh—19.
Humphreys,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Duke,	Mudd,
Freeman,	Newcomer,
Lawrence,	Steiner—6.

The order was then adopted.

The several officers present were then qualified by taking the oath prescribed by the Constitution.