RECEIVES ACTIVITIES KEY—Clarence W. Blount, administrative assistant to the president of the Community College of Baltimore (CCB), congratulates Catherine Barbee, dietetic technology graduate and recipient of the Activities Key at the college's 37th commencement exercises which were held recently. The Activities Key is awarded by CCB to a student who has achieved the best record of participation in student activities during four semesters at the college.

CCB graduates receive awards at graduation

Ilya Moshinsky, a graduate of the Community College of Baltimore's (CCB) engineering curriculum, was named winner of the first Dr. Harry Bard Memorial Award at CCB's 37th commencement exercises, it has been announced by H. William Hammond, CCB interim president.

The presentation of the award was made at the recent ceremony by Manuel Q. Goldstein, CCB's director of institutional research.

The Dr. Harry Bard Memorial Award was presented through a fund established by friends and associates of the late Dr. Harry Bard, the first president of CCB. A recipient will be chosen annually from among the graduates on the basis of outstanding academic performances as evidenced by having earned the highest cumulative grade point average. Mr. Moshinsky recorded a perfect scholastic record of 4.0 out of a possible 4.0.

Nearly 150 of CCB's 755 graduating students were cited for scholarship achievement.

Twenty-five of the graduates completed their studies "With High Honor," representing a four-semester cumulative grade average of 3.75 or more, out of a possible 4.0

An additional 124 were lauded for a four-semester grade average of at least 3.25. These two groups were presented Scholarship Keys during the ceremonies.

Fifty-five of CCB's graduates were installed in April as members of Phi Theta Kappa, the National Scholastic Honor Society for Junior-Community Colleges.

"Who's Who Among Students in American Junior Colleges" selected 29 CCB students.

CCB graduates singled out as key winners and award recipients for best exemplifying excellence in achievement in various categories were:

Catherine Theresa Johnson, a graduate of the college's medical laboratory technology curriculum, won the English Key.

The Service Key was won by Lola Costella Jenkins, arts and sciences curriculum graduate and student member of the College's Board of Trustees.

Duane Melvin Elliott, president of CCB's Student Government Association and graduate of the College's hotel/motel administration curriculum, was presented with Citizenship Key.

The Activities Key was presented to Catherine Barbee, dietetic technology graduate.

James Anthony Moro, business graduate, was awarded the Athletic Key.

Jill Marie Cogswell received the Physical Therapist Assistant Scholastic Award.

The Wall Street Journal Award, jointly given by CCB and the Dow Jones and Company, Inc., was presented to Josephine Barr, accounting graduate. Ms. Barr was appointed last July by Governor Marvin Mandel to a one-year term on the Maryland Board for Community Colleges, the first CCB student so honored.

Ms. Barr was also the recipient of the Angela Bambace Memorial Award. This award, in memory of deceased CCB Board of Trustees member Angela Bambace, is given annually by the CCB Faculty Federation, Local 1980, Teachers, AFL-CIO.

Commencement Exercises at CCB were highlighted on an address by Stephen W. McNierney, vice president/corporate controller, Black and Decker Manufacturing Company. The 755 CCB graduates received the degree of Associate in Arts or a certificate for completion of studies in CCB's liberal arts and more that 50 career-oriented programs.

HAVE 954 BOYS WAITING

Big Brothers need volunteers

By PAM WIDGEON
AFRO Staff Writer

Growing up isn't easy for boys without a father, especially for boys between the ages of 8 and 15 years old.

Thousands of boys are growing up in homes without fathers.

A lot of these same boys will not be able to spend Sunday (Father's Day) with their father or even buy him a gift.

As of February, 1977, Big Brothers of Central Maryland Inc., has a waiting list of 954 boys waiting for big brothers. Some of those young men have been on the waiting list for more than two years.

Perhaps you, your club, church or organization would like to become a big brother. It doesn't cost anything. All, they are asking is that you spend a few hours a week with a young boy.

Remember what it was like when you were growing up and dad would play ball with you, take you to a game or just sit and listen to your problems?

Big Brothers is a volunteer organization dedicated to helping fatherless boys in the community.

The organization is 25 years old and has provided youths between the ages of eight and 16 with adult male companionship.

Little brothers are boys who are left fatherless due to death, divorce or desertion. They live in the city and are left to manage without a male parent or relative.

Plans you make with your little brother can be made to fit your schedule.

It's hard to learn about being a man when there is no man around.

So many of these boys who need you will be dropped from the list when they become 16 and chances are they may wind up in trouble.

If you call 243-4000 and say, "I want to become a big brother," you will be making some child happy today.

A man who becomes a big brother knows he is doing something really important with his life.

Big Brothers is known to help thousands of fatherless boys.

The time you spend with your little brother is more important to him than anything else.

HONORED — Miss Evelyn D. Wilkey former registered nurse instructor at Cortez Peters Business School., who has been instrumental in obtaining positions in the field of business for hundreds of black persons will be honored at a retirement banquet June 23, 8 p.m. at La Fontaine Bleu.

BY THE WAY...

by Joe Black

One of the strongest moments of the TV presentation of Alex Haley's "Roots" was the searing scene, showing a white slave master lashing the back of Kunta Kinte in an effort to make him say his name was Toby.

It made me recall how the Reverend Jesse Jackson and song stylist Roberta Flack acted in concert when they eulogized Jackie Robinson through their old spiritual "I Told Jesus That It Is All Right To Change My Name."

How many of you have taken the time to remember Jackie Robinson? Well, it was thirty years ago when Jackie Robinson accepted the lashes of white hatred that came through name calling, threatening letters, flying spikes, speeding fast balls thrown at his head. And the lonely feeling of being part of a team and yet not being able to stay in the same hotel with his teammates.

It wasn't easy, of course, for a fighter like Jackie to turn the other cheek. To take a nonviolent approach.

So you can say he was strong. Plenty strong in the sense he set aside an ego trip to try and alter an ingrained attitude.

Jackie Robinson accepted and absorbed humilities, heartaches, and hurt because he was determined to prove that, if given a real opportunity, Black people could compete and work with whites on an equal basis.

What can you say about a man like Jackie Robinson who spends a lifetime making things a little better for his brothers?

I can say, he was my friend.

So can you.

So, let's say thank you to a real brother and keep his spirit alive by sending a contribution of $1.00 to the Jackie Robinson Foundation. The fund is headed by his wife, Rachel, and will focus on assisting minority and economically deprived children. Please, send a dollar to:

Congress tinkering with postal service

A bill to take away much of the independence of the Postal Service was introduced June 9 by the chairman of the two House subcommittees that deal with the Postal Service.

The bill, among other things, would allow Congress to nullify any increase in mail rates and any reduction in deliveries from six to five days a week, two changes that the service is expected to seek next month.

"The Postal Service is above all both a creature and a servant of this public. Yet postal executives have secured neither any meaningful way," according to Rep. James M. Hanley, (D-N.Y). and Charles H. Wilson, (D.-Calif.)

FATHER'S DAY TRIB.

ALLEN — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our father and grandfather, ALBERT J. ALLEN, who passed away December 29, 1961:
The prayer we'll make on Father's Day
Is that God will give you, too
Still more and more of all the joys
We had, dear Dad and Grandfather, because of you.
CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN and GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN.

CARRINGTON — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of my son, husband, father, DR. RUSSELL H. CARRINGTON, who passed away suddenly January 17, 1972:
Dear God please take this message to our loved one up above.
Tell him how very much we miss him and loved him.
It broke our hearts to lose him, but the old nurt go alone.
For part of us went with him, the day God called him home.
God is giving us courage to face it and strength to meet the blow.
To those who knew and loved him, His memory will never grow old.
Until we meet again in our heavenly home.
Your Heartbroken— MOTHER, WIFE and CHILDREN.

CLAYTON — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our father, ISAIAH CLAYTON, who passed away February 2, 1961:
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
Too far away for sight of speech
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here.
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
Daughters— LEANNA SANDERS— MARY FRAZIER— VERNICE JONES— RUTH CLAYTON Son—RICHARD and PAUL CLAYTON.

PRISBY — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our loved one, RICHARD PRISBY, who passed away July 14, 1972:
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here.
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
THE THOMPSON and PRISBY FAMILIES.

HARRIS — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of my husband and our father, DR. BERNARD HARRIS SR., who passed away April 13, 1969:
He has gone from his dear ones His children and his wife
Whom he lovingly called for And loved as his life.
THE FAMILY.

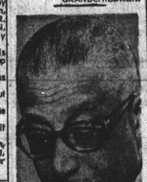
HENRY — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our loved one, JOSEPH G. HENRY, who passed away November 16, 1975:
A tribute of everlasting love
For all that you have done.
We know that God has given you
The rest that you have won.
THE HENRY FAMILY.

LOTTIER — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our father, GEORGE LOTTIER SR., who passed away April 27, 1962:
Every day is Father's Day
For you, Father dear.
You know of the deep love and affection
We hold for you from year to year.
THE FAMILY.

MEREDITH — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of my husband and our father, EDWARD A. MEREDITH, who passed away April 26, 1973:
Loving husband, faithful father,
How we miss your presence here
Home and world for those you cherish
Have darkened since your passing dear.
Loving Wife— FRANCES L. Children—EDWARD— AMETHA—MALCOLM— CURTIS—DONALD— WILLIAM—KEVIN.

FATHER'S DAY TRIB.

MINTER — A Father's Day Tribute in memory of our father, CHARLES C. MINTER, who passed away June 19, 1958:
Somewhere above this troubled world.
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our father rests in heavenly peace.
God grant some day we'll meet him there.
His Devoted— CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.



MURPHY — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our father, DR. CARL MURPHY, who passed away February 25, 1967:
Ten years ago, the sun was shining
The sky was heavenly blue,
Then our hearts were brightened cheerful
Because, Dear Dad, we had you.
DAUGHTERS

MURPHY — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our father, and loved one, D. ARNETT MURPHY, who passed away January 17, 1971:

PITTS — A Father's Day Tribute of love to the memory of our dear father, CHARLES PITTS, who passed away June 18, 1933:
We always think of Father
Whenever things go wrong.
There's something in his memory
That helps to make us strong.
Oh, what a different world we have
If everyone could be
Just a little more father, like
The one God gave to us!
Your Loving Children, DOLLIE—ELLA— VIOLA—MAGGIE— ELSIE and SADIE.

SMALLWOOD — A Father's Day Tribute to the memory of our loved one, AUGUSTUS SMALLWOOD, who passed away May 7, 1961:
Since way back in our childhood days
You were our pal and friend
We always knew you were someone
On whom we could depend
Someone to count on for advice
And loving praise as well.
We hope you will hear our Father's Day wish
Dad, you sure were mighty swell.
Your Loving Children: ETHEL, EVA, SARA, JOHN and GRANDCHILDREN.
