Approved April 3, 1882.

Chapter 221.

AN ACT supplementary to chapter two hundred and thirty-four of the acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of eighteen hundred and seventy, entitled "An Act to incorporate the Bachman Valley Railroad Company," and to authorize said company to extend its railroad from its present terminus at Ebbvale, Carroll county, Maryland, to and into Westminster in said county, and to authorize said company to condemn crossings over other railroads.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Bachman Valley Railroad Company be and it is hereby authorized to extend its railroad from Ebbvale, its present terminus in Carroll county, Maryland, to any point within the corporate limits of Westminster in said county, and in the construction, use, operation and enjoyment of said extension of its railroad, said company shall have all the rights, powers, franchises, privileges and immunities it has for the construction, use and enjoyment of its main line of railroad, under the said act incorporating said company.

Extend railroad.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said company is hereby authorized in constructing said extension of its railroad to cross any other railroad, either at grade or under or above grade as said company may determine, and in case the said company cannot agree with the company owning or operating the railroad so crossed as to the compensation to be made for the easement of crossing, then said Bachman Valley Railroad Company is hereby authorized to condemn such easement of crossing in the same manner as lands of individuals are condemned under the act incor-

How to cross.
