FROM TRAINEE TO TOP SALESMAN—Larry Reibman (R), vice president of Sealy Mattress Co., Baltimore, presents a silver trophy to Agathus "Griff" Griffin, in recognition of his selection as Sealy Mid-Atlantic Salesman of the Year for 1976-1977. The 31-year-old winner, a graduate of Coppin State, started with Sealy as a trainee in July, 1974. Griffin will attend the annual Sealy marketing meeting in Chicago, June 28 to 29, where he is a candidate for International Sealy Salesman of the Year. The regional awards, based on outstanding sales performance, was made June 10.

Summer news from city schools

School has closed for the 1976-77 year and the pupils are free to do what they want before returning in September.

Yet, just because the schools have closed, there is still news about the major achievements of those pupils.

CITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Forty-five graduating seniors have won scholarship grants through two city projects.

Twenty students were selected to receive the David E. Weglein Scholarship Program and 25 students received the Baltimore City Scholarship Porrgram. Each pupil was selected for his or her scholastic standing and financial need.

SAFETY HONOR ROLL

Fifty-six city schools have been listed on the 1975-76 National Safety Honor Roll.

For the 28th consecutive year John Eager Howard Elementary school has been listed on the Honor Roll while Jefferson Elementary School has appeared for 24 years.

The Safety Honor Roll is a program which requires schools to present a detailed report of safety programs.

SOUTHERN HIGH SCHOOL

The school held its annual Script Letter Ceremony and awarded 42 script letters to students for having rendered many hours of valuable service to Southern.

This year's awards were given by principal James T. Lamar.

SECURITY REPORT

The May security report, according to Larry Burgan, chief of security "again reflects a continuation of the comparative stability that we have experienced over the past two years."

The total average incidents per day for May was 25.3 compared with 29.4 in April.

SUMMER SKILL PROGRAM

The vocational education division sponser the summer occupational training and skill development courses in nine areas of work, at Canver Vocational-Technical High School, Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School and Vocational Automotive Center, 3417 Greenmount Ave.

Classes will begin June 27 and continue for six weeks through Aug. 5. All classes will be in session from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday. No classes will be held Monday, July 4.

SENIOR COPS CAIN AWARD

Douglass High graduating senior Gregory Mobley, who will be attending University of Maryland, Baltimore County in the fall, was recently honored by city school officials as the recipient of the William Cain Scholarship Award.

The scholarship grant, in its second year, is awarded for athletic accomplishment, academic performance, leadership and citizenship.

RUTLAND ADOPTS LOT

Teachers and students from Rutland Elementary School have joined the growing list of Baltimoreans who are "adopting" and caring for unused property in order to improve the appearance of the city's neighborhoods. This year, the Rutland school community has taken the responsibilty for the maintenance of the lot at 1701 Register Street near the school.

The project is designed to improve the appearance of neighborhoods, and because the Rutland School has done such an exceptional job "the neighborhood is taking on a different look and families are protecting our Adopt-A-Lot area," said Mr. Bush.

The work done by students and faculty with seeds, bulbs and trees, Mr. Bush remarked that "we hope to see the fruits of our planing by this summer."

TESTING PROGRAM

A ninth grade equivalency testing programs is now being offered by the division of adult and community education, with the approval of the state department of education.

The testing program is available at the Calvert Educational Center, 200 E. North Ave. and the examination is administered every Monday and Tuesday of each week, in Room 133.

HANDICAPPED PUPIL WINS SCHOOL CONTEST

Maria Goodwin, a 16-year-old attending the Upton School for Exceptional Children who is intellectually and visually impaired, was recently awarded a camera by the school's Parent Teacher Association.

The award was given because Maria sold the most 25-cent tickets in a fund-raising effort that helps Upton pay for trips and other educational programs.

Businessmen graduate from sales training

The Greater Baltimore Minority Purchasing Council Inc. (GBMPC) will once again hold its semi-annual sales training graduation ceremony.

The 13 "Because Of Who You Are" graduates will be recognized on Friday, June 24. The ceremony will be in the Chamber of Commerce Board Room, 22 Light St. from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Because Of Who You Are" is a 12-week training course in professional sales techniques for minority businessmen. The Xerox Corporation sponsored the program this term and provided sales personnel to guide the students through the course by means of practical application.

The objective is to sharpen the sales expertise of minority entrepreneurs, thus furthering the cause of economic development for the minority business sector.

Jim Herget, the original producer of "Because Of Who You Are" will speak on the importance of professional salesmanship to minority businesses.

Attending the ceremony will be buyers of various private sector corporations along with members of the council. The family and friends of the graduates will also be in attendance as well as other interested persons.

A donation of $10.00 will be required. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Delta is number 1 under the moon.

Delta has more low-fare Night Coach flights between more cities in the U.S.A. than any other airline. For instance, from Baltimore we have Night Coach flights to 24 different cities, including these:

Atlanta	$54	Los Angeles	$157
Birmingham	61	Miami	76
Dallas/Ft.Worth	91	New Orleans	79
Ft.Lauderdale	76	San Diego	157
Houston	93	San Francisco	157
Jackson	73	Savannah	53

One-way Night Coach fares. Fares subject to change without notice.

No other airline beats Delta's low fares. As shown above, you can fly any night without restrictions and save 20% off regular Day Tourist on Delta's Night Coaches.

Or save with Delta's round-trip Freedom Fares to every Delta city in the continental U.S. There are advance purchase and reservation requirements, limited seats, restrictions on travel duration and times. But they're well worth it. Check for details.

For instant reservations thru Deltamatic, call Delta at 768-9000, or see your friendly Travel Agent. Delta and your Travel Agent accept American Express and all other major general-purpose credit cards. Have a nice trip. DELTA
