Ebenezer Baptist has mortgage burning services

The burning of the mortage was witnessed last Sunday by members and friends of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Guilford Ave. and 23rd St., where Rev. Clarence Poole is pastor.

The time for the $200,000 repayment mortgage was 20 years but members made the payments in less than half the time.

Rev. George Davis, assistant pastor of Ebenezer, was the first speaker at the celebration. Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Payne, pastor emeritus of Enon, was the 11 a.m. speaker.

Rev. Dr. Payne praised Ebenzer for its great accomplishments. Dinner was served following the 11 a.m. service and the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Payne were special guests.

Mrs. Garnetta Garlic, Richmond, Va. is a former active member and church clerk of Ebenezer Baptist and was also honored at the dinner.

Rev. Mr. Poole presided at the 4 p.m. mortgage burning service. Also participatioating in the services were Rev. George Davis, Paul Hinton, Mrs. Addia J. Key, O. H. Darby and Mrs. Naomi Lewis Johnson, who gave a mini-history of the church lating from 1896 to 1977.

A special feature of the program was the honoring of all the golden afe members of the church. Members wh have attended for 50 years or more received a certificate and buttons from Mrs. Ardella Lokeman and her assistants.

Rev. Dr. Alfred C. D. Vaughn, pastor of Grace Memorial Bpatist Church, was the speaker at the mortgage burning service.

The burning of the mortgage and the rededication services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Poole, Donald Mack, chairman of the Trustee board and Deacon Robert Ransom.

Committee members were David Sinclair, Mrs. Betty Graves, Mrs. Ruth Morton, and Melvin Parrison.

Cherry Hill Clean Block rally

A series of Clean Block Beautification Rallies will be held in various locations of the Cherry Hill community on Friday, June 24 between 1 and 4 p.m.

The theme of this community wide rally is "Unity In the Community Will Keep It Clean and Green."

The outdoor locations of the unity rallies will be at School No. 164 — Recreation Center, The Community Building-Recreation Center, 2700 Spelman Road, School No. 163 — Recreation Center, 944 Roundview Road and the culminating activity will be at Round Road and Seagull Avenue.

Several agencies in Cherry Hill are jointly sponsoring this full afternoon of fun and entertainment which will include special guests who will assist the residents and agency representatives in expressing the importance of community pride and harmonious living. Also, Mrs. Arnetta Lottier, deputy director, AFRO Clean Block Program, will be on hand to receive the names of those participants registered in the AFRO Clean Block activities.

Special acts from the Mayor's Committee on Arts and Culture will perform along with local talent of Cherry Hill, two rock bands; "X-Rated and Fire," will provide the music, for the delight of the youngsters.

Additional local talent will include The Tumbling Wildcats, The Makawa House Entertainers, The Zany Zombies and the Recreation Modern Dance Group. Mrs. Lorraine Johnson, president of the Cherry Hill Homes Resident Organization, will give words of encouragement to the various neighborhood spectators as the Rally Mobile Units move about the area. Assisting her will be the neighborhood Clean Block captains.

The agencies, staff and Cherry Hill residents responsible for this all out effort are:

Harry Johnson and Ernest Barnes, Baltimore City Fire Department, Community Relations Division; Fecolia Taylor, Nathaniel Brown, Warner Wells and Doug Brady, Bureau of Recreation Center directors and supervisor; Delroy Jones and Odell Slade, Social Services Division of the Department of Urban Services Agency; Gloria Turnquist, Rosa McCoy and Coleman Grant, Cherry Hill resident leaders; Hazel Taylor, Bridgett Moore, Robune Spencer and Charletta Lynn, youth representatives; Thomas Seaborn, Baltimore City Police Department, Community Relations Division; Gerald McLeod of Makawa House; the Department of Housing Management Staff of Cherry Hill, Bette Ray, Thaddeus Thornton, Thomas Dutton, Dorothy Sneed, James Martin and Barbara B. Dungee, housing manager; Wilbert Adams, director of Urban Services.

Next AFRO Clean Block Meeting Friday, July 8, 11 a.m.

The first summer meeting of more than 180 blocks registered in the AFRO's All American City Clean Block Campaign was held today, Friday, at McCulloh Homes Project.

It is important for all block captains, co-captains and advisors to attend this meeting. Consultants from the various city agencies will be there to help you with your block problems. Paint will be available at this meeting.

There will be prizes for blocks who bring a block. Get the blocks around you to join the campaign. Let's make this AFRO All American Clean Block Campaign the best yet.

See you at 11 a.m. on Friday, July 8.

Sidelights

By Arnetta Lottier

Thanks to William Schmidt, Jr. Superintendent of Parks for his cooperation in getting the dead tree removed from 1726 Holbrook St. Residents called to say how happy they are and how much better the street looks without the tree.

2500 Virginia Ave: residents are concerned about cars using the lot at the end of the street as a short cut to Reisterstown Rd. The wire fence around the lot has been broken down by car users, who come off the Wabash Express instead of going to Ridgehill or Coldspring Lane.

It is quite dangerous since these cars are speeding and children in the block could get hurt. Understand even the police cars use this short cut.

It seems that the same folks in the 500 block Gilmor St. who complained about being in the paper last week for sitting on neighbors steps til the wee hours of the morning were right back out there until 4 a.m. the other night, playing loud music. Residents are still complaining.

Onions to the young lady in this block who feels Mrs. Louise Flodd, AFRO Clean Block Captain, doesn't own the block, which is true, but she is a resident in the block and should be respected.

Onions also to the persons who threw trash all over the street and turned over neighbors tire urns which were filled with beautiful flowers. This, too, happened in the 500 block N. Gilmor St. One belonged to an elderly lady wo can't afford to buy anymore flowers.

Residents of 1600 Lansing St. would like to have the vacant lot in their block fenced off to keep people from breaking glass and dumping junk. They would like to use it to plant flowers or vegetables. Call Adopt-A-Lot, 396-9178.

Orchids to Leonard Dorsey, 2400 Francis St. who is helping the youngsters with their Clean Block. He cleaned off the lot at the corner of Francies and Traction Sts. where he plans to open a snowball stand for the neighbors to have money to beautify their block as well as give the children something to do.

Orchids also to Mass Transit for their cooperation with Clean Blockers in the 2400 block Francis St. They immediately sent someone out to clean their yard after being told the block had joined the AFRO Clean Block Campaign. Orchids also to the furniture manufacturers at the corner of Traction and Francis St. who agreed to help. This is very refreshing to hear since most folks are complaining about neighbors who won't cooperate.

1002 E. Lanvale St. needs to be boarded up. It is filled with trash and garbage. This is one of our new Clean Blocks. Neighbors decided to take pride in their block by cleaning it up and beautifying it.

Junk left by owner in the 1400 block Argyle Ave. after tenant moved out. Neighbors in the 600 block W. Lafayette Ave. want this junk removed and the grass cut in the yard.
