Concord Baptist members observe 40th anniversary at banquet

Members of the Concord Baptist family observed their 40th anniversary of the church and 17th anniversary of their pastor, the Rev. Matthew R. Silver at a delightful banquet held at Blue Crest North.

Concord Baptist Church, 5204 Liberty Heights Ave., is known as "The church of three ships, friendships, fellowship and worship."

"Coming Together On One Accord to the Glory of God" was the theme for the 40th anniversary.

More than 500 members and friends of the church and Poppleton Sts. was attended the affair. Prior to the banquet, a fellowship hour for members to exchange greetings and enjoy the delicious punch and hors d'oeuvres.

The Rev. Mr. Silver has served as pastor of Concord Baptist Church since March 13, 1960 when there were only 700 members. Today, the church has more than 1,000 members.

One of the first major problems the Rev. Mr. Silver faced was the relocation of the church since the old building at Franklin and Poppleton Sts. was condemned to make way for an interstate highway.

The church purchased the Liberty Jewish Center for $130,000 in 1968 and fire damaged much of the new building delaying relocation until the fall of 1969.

In October 1969 the Rev. Mr. Silver and members of Concord marched into their new church home at 5204 Liberty Heights Ave.

Judge Robert B. Watts was toastmaster for the banquet and Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, pastor of Abyssinian Baptist Church in New York, was the speaker.

Dr. Proctor has served as president of Virginia Union University and North Carolina A and T State University. He has held administrative positions with the Peace Corps in Nigeria and Washington, the National Council of Churches, Office of Economic Opportunity, Institute for Services to Education and the University of Wisconsin.

Greetings were extended by Dr. Olyn P. Moyd, third vice president of the United Baptist Missionary Convention and pastor of Mount Lebanon Baptist Church; George Judge, president of the Board of Trustees of Provident Hospital.

Also, Winston Highsmith, chairman of the Board of Deacons of Concord and an active long time member of the church.

Trustee Harlow Fullwood Jr., who has been an active member of Concord since 1969 and served as general chairperson of the 40th anniversary stated, "Concord must remember a man succeeds when he helps another reach the heights which he could not attain of himself.

"God has not made it possible for each of us to be a great leader, pastor or a great anything, but God has given each of us the opportunity to live successfully," he said.

Banquet committee members were Marjorie R. Green, banquet chairperson; Evelyn McCallum, banquet co-chairperson; Kay Connor's, Grace Flippin, Ann Nichols, Gwendolyn Brice Katrine Gee, Jackie Thomas, Ellaeves Mills, Shirley Hill, Frank Roseborough, Ronald McCallum, Floyd Stukes and Reginald Ingram, Bettina Scott, Phyllis Street and James Royster, musician.

ANNIVERSARY BANQUET—Rev. Matthew R. Silver, pastor of Concord Baptist Church is shown at Concord's anniversary banquet talking with Judge Milton B. Allen (C) and Judge Robert Watts (R) who participated on the program.

Stewards Day is Sunday

The Steward Board of Hemingway Temple AME Church in Cherry Hill is observing its annual Stewards Day on Sunday.

Dr. M. Arthur Camper, pastor, will be speaking and administering holy communion during the 11 a.m. services assisted by the Rev. Annabelle Chase and Talmon Couser, vice chairman of the Steward Board.

Special guest for the 3:30 p.m. service will be the Rev. Reginald Boston of Grace AME Church in Catonsville.

Reobe Richardson and Mrs. Irene Bond are chairpersons for the 26th anniversary of the Steward Board.

Women of Union Baptist observe Women's Day

The 83rd annual Women's Day of Union Baptist Church, 105 Main St. in Turners Station, was observed June 26.

Speaker at the 8 a.m. service was the Rev. Alfreda Wiggins, associate minister of East Baltimore Deliverance Church and Dr. Katie M. Monroe of East Orange, N.J., spoke at the 11 a.m. services.

"Accountability — An Imperative In Developing a Christian Life Style" was the theme for Women's Day.

The Rev. William E. Johnson, pastor of Union Baptist Church, told the women, "We've come thus far by faith. From the time of Christ's ascension, women filled an active and faithful role in support of Christ's church, leaving an inspiring legacy to church women today.

"Some of these women adherents to the faith, along with his most devoted men disciples held to form the new church. I am indeed grateful to God and the women of Union who are endeavoring to keep the legacy going."

Committee members were Mesdames Gwendolyn E. Melvin, Sylvia Thomas, Marie Flood, Clara S. Green, Shirley Collins, Margaret Baker, Sylvia Thomas, Marlene Brown, Annette Genn, Misses Elizabeth Williams, Stephanie Flood and Ray Lynn Austin.

IN MEMORIAM

BUTLER — In loving memory of our beloved father, SAMUEL H. BUTLER, who passed away June 26, 1949:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few
They are filled with remembrance dear father of you.
Daughters—ALMA and MARY
Son—LEROY.

HOWARDS — In loving memory of my husband, STEVEN ED. WARDS, who passed away July 3, 1961:
I have lost my soul's companion
A life linked with my own
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
Wife—MABLE EDWARDS.

FERRELL — In loving memory of a wonderful mother, grandmother and outstanding mid-wife, MRS. BESSIE ELIZABETH FERRELL, who passed away June 29, 1976:
She will always live in our memory.
You bade no one a last farewell,
You said goodbye to none.
Your loving heart has ceased to beat
Your stay on earth is done.
The flowers we placed upon your grave
May wither and decay;
Our love for you, who sleep beneath
Will never fade away.
THE FERRELL FAMILY.

GREEN — In loving memory of my mother, ROBINA GREEN who passed away June 30, 1953:
Sunshine passes and shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlast all.
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance,
Mother, of you.
Loving Daughter, FLORINA GREEN TERRY.

HINES — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, HERBERT HINES, SR., who passed away July 2, 1971:
Husband of mine, all we who miss you so,
Join in this tribute as you sleep below.
Your body rest—since dust returns to dust,
But up above—your spirit with the just.
And though we weep—a happy face we share,
That we shall be united, Over there.
Loving Wife, PAULINE and CHILDREN.

MILLER — In loving memory of my dear mother, NETTIE W. MILLER, who passed away July 2, 1974:
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare—
A mother as dear as you.
Sadly Missed:
Devoted Daughter, ERNESTINE WATKINS and FAMILY.

PETERS — A tribute of love to the memory of our dear niece, FERN MARIA, who passed away June 28, 1976:
Sometimes it's hard to understand
Why some things have to be,
But, in His wisdom, God has planned
Beyond our power to see.
Loving Aunts, DOLORES PETERS CAROLYN DUNCAN ELEANOR RANDALL.

PROCTOR — In loving memory of my dear husband and our brother, FLETCHER, who passed away July 4, 1967:
In our hearts we'd like to stray
along the road of yesterday
To hear you laugh, to see you smile to talk with you a little while
We'd love to linger, along the way that leads us back to yesterday.
Wife—MABEL
Sister—GENEVA NEALY,
Brother—WILLIAM.
