

1 the kind of session we have right now.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: We are anxious to get the so-
3 called offbeat recommendations, too. I think they are
4 all valuable. I'm sorry, I didn't mean to be descriptive
5 tonight at all. So, by all means, don't back away, Mr.
6 Hardwicke, because on your recommendation we want you
7 to -- anyone who wants to comment on this further? Mr.
8 Moore?

9 DELEGATE MOORE: Not on John Hardwicke's
10 suggestion.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: On any of them?

12 DELEGATE MOORE: I believe it's the correct
13 inference that there is a consensus here that 70 days
14 is not sufficient.

15 SENATOR HUGHES: It's not long enough.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: That is correct?

17 SENATOR HUGHES: As far as I'm concerned.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: We need to get some consensus
19 here. Is there a leaning in the direction of 90 rather 20 than 70?

21 DELEGATE MANDEL: Yes. While we have some
