

Chapter 106.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the adjutant general of the state, by and with the advice of the governor, to pay the Garrett Guards the sum of one hundred and eighty-five dollars, for services performed in the recapture and at the execution of John Smith, at Oakland, on the sixteenth day of November, 1883.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the adjutant general of the state is hereby authorized and empowered, by and with the advice of the governor, to pay the Garrett Guards the sum of one hundred and eighty-five dollars, for services performed in the recapture and at the execution of John Smith, sentenced by the circuit court for Garrett county to be hanged, for the murder of Josiah Harden, and executed on the sixteenth day of November, eighteen hundred and eighty-three; and the adjutant general, by and with the advice of the governor, is hereby authorized and directed to pay said sum out of the appropriation for the support of militia for eighteen hundred and eighty-four, to Captain E. H. Wardwell, of said company.

Pay for services performed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved March 20, 1884.
