

Chapter 309.

AN ACT to repeal section two hundred and sixty-seven of article four of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Harbor and Harbor Masters," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section two hundred and sixty-seven of article four of the Public Local Laws, title "City of Baltimore," sub-title "Harbor and Harbor Masters," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repealed and re-enacted.

SEC. 267. No wharf shall be run out, made, altered, enlarged or extended so as to divert the cause of the channel, obstruct the harbor or basin, or to the injury of the same; and no person shall make, alter or extend any wharf without laying before the mayor and city council, or some person authorized by them, a plan of said wharf, and obtaining the consent of the mayor and city council, if in session, or of the joint standing committee of the city council or harbor, and the mayor, when said city council is not in session, if duly authorized so to act by the mayor and city council to carry the same into effect.

Wharf not to obstruct harbor

Approved April 8, 1884.